NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

COLONEL FREDERICK D. GRANT reached Vienna yesterday, to enter upon the office of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Austria.

CORPORAL TANNER will recommend to Congress that ex-soldiers in receipt of pensions of $3.76 per month be raised to $4, and that the rate of $72 per month for total disability be changed to $100.

PRESIDENT CARNOT of France has sent assistance to the family of Perrau, the lunatic who tried to assassinate him with a blank cartridge, and Madame Carnot pleads for his release from prison. Perrau was a good soldier before he became insane.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND tons of American steel rails were sold the other day for $24.70 per ton. English rails were paid for in this country before the tariff was put on at the rate of $166 a ton. But the tariff is a tax nevertheless. It taxed the British extortionists out of the country.

PEOPLE are burying their bodies in the mud of swamps and lying flat upon their faces in Northern Michigan, while the forest fires rage above and around them. Many of them are believed to have perished. The locomotive is blazing the way of the settler whom it has carried to his new home.

THE Democratic Excise Board of New York proposes to cut down the price of saloon licenses from $350 to $250. A great influx of cheap saloon keepers who have been frozen out of Philadelphia and Boston is expected, and the reduction, it is believed, will add 10,000 votes to the party of David B. Hill.

SIXTEEN contested election cases for the fifty-first Congress to decide are already on file, and several more are coming. Not more than two of them are from Democrats who wish to unseat Republicans. If the House does its entire duty in these cases, fraud and bulldozing at the South will lose their popularity.

DANIEL V. HOUSER, an Indiana soldier, has been awarded the pension that Gen. Black denied him. His injury was caused by a fall upon the ice, the result of a push from a fellow soldier. He was in the service of the United States at the time, and hence, according to Republican interpretation, "in the line of duty."

THE steamship City of Paris, the fastest that ever crossed the Atlantic, will leave New York on her return trip next Wednesday afternoon. The Brittanic, Westernland and Aller will sail the same day, and lively racing is predicted. Tourists who wish to cross to Europe in great haste and without regard to danger can get passage on either of these "greyhounds of the Atlantic."

THE English House of Lords again defeated the deceased wife's sister's bill yesterday, and the man who wants to marry his sister-in-law will have to bring her over to the United States as has been done before. The opponents of the measure are chiefly the Lord Bishops, who realize that the Church of England would crumble to its foundations if left without this single remaining peg to stand upon.

THE Albany Express states that since 1870 the population of Albany has risen from 70,000 to 103,000, a gain of less than 50 per cent, while the municipal salary list has grown during the same time from $25,400 to $81,400, or over 220 per cent. It would be superfluous to state, after reciting these figures, that the municipal government of Albany has been steadily and unbrokenly Democratic during the entire period.

THE FREEMAN was misinformed a few days ago, it seems, in regard to Public Printer Benedict's conduct. He did not tender his resignation as stated, but had to be removed. Instead of resigning, he had been heard to declare repeatedly that if the President wanted the place he could ask for it. On Wednesday Mr. Palmer's appointment was made out and Benedict notified of the fact, but as he did not yet tender his resignation the President informed him in a brief note that he was summarily removed. Mr. Palmer is in charge to-day, and Benedict has the President's letter to prove that he is a martyr.

THE ceiling investigation committee of the Assembly reports that John Snaith, Timothy J. Sullivan and Charles B. Andrews entered into a conspiracy to rob the state by procuring the contract at an exorbitant rate, and then doing the work poorly. It recommends the removal of Andrews, the indictment of the conspirators by the grand jury, and their prosecution by the Attorney General for the recovery of the stolen money. The prosecution should be begun at once, or else there will be more stealing. It is unwise to wait till rascality becomes a good deal more transparent than it was in the days of Tweed.

FATHER DAMIEN, the Catholic priest who in 1873 enlisted as a missionary on the leper island of Molokai of the Hawaiian group, is dead. The lepers to whom he went to minister were the most abandoned, degraded and vicious people on the earth, but he labored successfully to convert them to Christianity. Five years ago he became aware that the awful disease had seized upon him, but he never faltered. He remained among his chosen people, and set a Christian example of dying, resignedly and in full confidence of a blissful immortality, the death to which they are all doomed. Such heroism and self-sacrifice as this carries one back to the days of the Apostles.

MICHAEL J. BOURKE, Collector of Special Taxes in the twenty-sixth ward of Brooklyn, formerly the town of New Lots, confesses that he has collected $40,000 and paid over only $15,000. The rest of the money he has spent in political assessments for the Democratic party, in a dry-goods enterprise and in unfortunate land speculations. His salary is $3,000 a year, but this has not been sufficient to support his family and satisfy his creditors. Bourke has three years to serve, and thinks that if let alone he will be able to make up the full amount of his defalcation. In other words, he is anxious to become a civil service reformer of himself. But Sing Sing is gaping for him.

THE RAPID TRANSIT BILL.

The Governor Sends a Message to The Legislature.

FAST TIME ON THE LAKES.

From Buffalo to Chicago in Fifty-Four Hours.

SOLDIERS' ORPHAN SCHOOL.

Members of a G. A. R. Post and Their Opinions.

THE WORLD IN MINIATURE

IN THE STATE LEGISLATURE TO-DAY.

What was Said in Reference to Anti-Bucket Shop Bill in Senate.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 10.—In the Assembly to-day Ainsworth introduced a bill for the election of School Directors in the several towns of the State. He said the bill was intended to return to the township system of school management throughout the State, and that no effort would be made to pass the bill this session, but at his request the bill was ordered to a third reading, ordered printed and referred to the Committee on Public Education.

The Governor sent a message to the Assembly saying the necessity of providing some relief for New-York City in the matter of rapid transit was the pressing question of the hour. "Every citizen of that City understands and appreciates the situation and is looking to the Legislature for prompt and wise action. It is the greatest city upon the continent but its prosperity, progress and development are hampered and restricted by insufficient and inadequate means of travel." The Governor says the bill known as the "Mayor's Rapid Transit" bill is reasonably free from objections and it is believed it will accomplish the purpose desired. "It is admitted to be an honest measure. It has no entangling alliances with any private or corporate schemes, but has been framed absolutely in the public interest and is supported by all the reputable newspapers in New-York City, and favored by nearly every representative in the Legislature from that City. There seems to be no good reason why it should not be enacted. The Governor says a suspicion is abroad that this measure cannot be passed unless some concession of a political character shall accompany it, and the delays interposed to its progress and the circumstances surrounding its opposition have seemed to justify this suspicion. It is practically certain that if the Mayor's bill does not pass there will be no relief afforded this year. It is to be hoped that the bill will not be defeated by inaction or indirection. It should be clearly understood that the measure upon which I am urging action does not compel the adoption or designate, or even indicate any particular system or plan or device to secure rapid transit for New-York City's great and increasing population. It simply confers upon the authorities of that City power to select some method which will give needed relief to the hundreds of thousands of those who are daily compelled to travel between their homes and their work-shops or offices."

IN STATE SENATE.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 10.—In the Senate to-day Fassett submitted a petition containing some 20,000 names in favor of declaring cider an intoxicating drink. Referred to the Committee on Internal Affairs.

Sloan, from the Finance Committee, reported favorably Mase's three-headed Lunacy Commission bill, amended so as to provide that the present Commissioner [Dr. Smith] shall be kept in office as the Fourth Commissioner until his term expires. The bill as amended was passed.

Husted's bill appropriating $25,000 for the State camp mess hall was received from the Assembly and ordered to a third reading.

Bills passed: Longley's, relative to the increase of capital stock of railroad corporations. The Ways and Means Committee bill relative to the payment of awards made by the Board of Claims.

When Rhodes' anti-bucket shop bill came up Grady opposed it saying it was an attempt to allow the big fishes to eat up the little. There should be no distinction between one dealer in stocks and bonds and another. He moved the bill be recommitted to the Judiciary Committee.

Robertson hoped the motion would not prevail. There was no other business which did more injury than the bucket shop.

Grady said the bill abolished "puts" and "calls."

Sloan didn't know but that was advisable. If that was all the bill did he would vote for it.

Grady said if the issuing of "puts" and "calls" was what was meant by bucket-shops then Daniel Drew was a bucket-shop-keeper. If bucket-shops were wiped out the Stock Exchanges should receive the same treatment.

BILLS SIGNED BY GOVERNOR.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 10.—The Governer has signed the following:

Chapter 278, appropriating $1,800 for the erection of a mole and adjuncts thereto from the dyke to the mainland in front of the premises of Edward McCabe, on Houghtaling's Island in the Hudson River.

Chapter 279, further providing means for the erection and completion of a Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument in Brooklyn.

Chapter 280, amending Brooklyn's consolidated laws relative to the Department of Police.

"United Brethren" Conference.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 10.—The world's quadrennial conference of the United Brethren Church is in session here. The conference is the highest legislative body of the church, and consists of ministers chosen by the vote of the members of the denomination. Each annual conference is entitled to not less than two and not more than four representatives, according to the number of its members. The principal work of this conference will be to examine the administration of each of the annual conferences and establish their boundaries; to prescribe the Episcopal districts and to assign to each one a bishop; to modify the provisions of the church discipline; to provide for the management of the different institutions of the church and to elect the general officers.

The Chester Soldiers' Orphans' School.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., May 10.—The Chester Springs Soldiers' Orphans' School matter continues to be the subject of much comment in this County. The members of McCall Post, No. 31, G. A. R., are not feeling in a very pleasant mood towards State Superintendent Higbee, because of the indifference he has shown in behalf of the suffering orphans that are pupils in that institution.

Proceedings were Uninteresting.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, May 10.—The proceedings before the Parnell Commission to-day were uninteresting. Public interest in the trial has waned since the examination of Parnell was concluded.

FAST TIME BY STEAMER CHEMUNG.

It Sailed From Buffalo to Chicago in Fifty-Four Hours.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The big steamship Chemung came down the Lake front, early this morning, with the speed of a railroad train. It was on the home stretch of the greatest long-distance run ever made on fresh water. On the last trip up, the Owego, the twin boat of the Chemung, made the remarkable time of 58 hours from Buffalo. Between the two boats, although they belong to the same line, the sharpest rivalry exists. The Chemung left Buffalo at 7:30 P. M., Tuesday, reaching Detroit in 13 hours and Port Huron in 19. The long run up Lake Huron was made in 14 hours and 10 minutes. Then the nose of the big boat was put for Chicago harbor, and it came up Lake Michigan as fast as its powerful machinery could bring it, arriving here at 2:30 this morning. Its time was 20 hours and 30 minutes from the Straits and 54 hours from Buffalo, counting the difference of an hour in time.

Marsh, Not Natural Gas.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—The digging of the well at Spreckels' sugar refinery, which it was believed contained a natural gas spring, is being proceeded with vigorously at the foot of Reed-street on the Delaware River. It was thought yesterday that the flow will not prove what was expected of it. The impression prevails that the gas is of the kind which is always forced out of swampy ground when a heavy pressure is placed upon it, and it is supposed that the immense weight of the foundations for the new refineries has had something to do with it, The ground was formerly very swampy, but was recently filled in. Mr. Spreckels does not believe that natural gas has been discovered. If the gas is good for anything the well will be developed to its fullest capacity.

Philadelphia's License Court.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—After being in session for 44 days the License Court yesterday completed its work, and although it has not finally adjourned, it is understood that no further public business will be transacted. Yesterday's session was a brief one and but sparsely attended. All four Judges were present, and no applicant this year will be justified in complaining of not being given a fair hearing, as the Court was kept in session over an hour after the actual business of the day was completed in order to allow tardy applicants to argue their claims. None of them appeared, however.

A Contractor Missing.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—One of Lock Haven's old residents, Patrick Prendible, is missing, and when last heard from he was in this city, and had just received from the sale of some bonds between $700 and $800. He came here on April 15 and called on Broker W. G. Huey to negotiate the sale of securities. Mr. Prendible was a prominent railroad contractor, and constructed the low-grade division of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad, receiving in payment bonds of the road.

Strikers Encounter Military.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BERLIN, May 10.—There was an encounter near Brockel, Westphala, to-day, between the troops and strikers. A large body of the latter had gathered and were becoming disorderly, when they were ordered to disperse by the officer commanding the military. The strikers refused. After warning them of the consequences and no attention being paid to the warning, the officer ordered the soldiers to fire. Three of the miners were killed and several wounded.

Effects of a European Coal Strike.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BERLIN, May 10.—Many iron works have been obliged to extinguish the fires in their furnaces in consequence of the strike. The number of strikers has reached 70,000. At a meeting of 5,000 strikers in Bochum yesterday, it was resolved to insist upon their demands. The Krupp Works have arranged to obtain coal from Upper Silesia and England and will resume the making of rails.

The Great Salt Lake Race.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

DENVER, May 10.—Oarsmen O'Connor, Lee, Gaudaur, Hamm and Petersen will row on the Great Salt Lake, on the second of June, a single scull race, three miles with turn, for a $1,500 purse, to be divided as follows: $800 to the winner, $400 to the second, $200 to the third and $100 to the fourth. A San Francisco man offers a $250 purse to the man who breaks the world's record.

Killed at a Grade Crossing.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—Patrol wagon No. 8, attached to the Twenty-Second Police District, was struck by a train at Thirteenth and Cumberland-streets, last night, and three officers were injured and a horse killed.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Leading Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 10.—The opening of the stock market this morning was extremely dull and at prices practically unchanged from those of last evening. Atchison and Oregon Transcontinental were still leaders in activity, but St. Paul was quiet, its place being taken by Union Pacific. The market displayed a heavy to weak tone, but outside of Atchison the fluctuations were insignificant, though Rock Island after opening up ½ retired ⅝ and Oregon Transcontinental continued strong, rising a fraction. The changes in the Atchison directory did not inspire the confidence expected and a lively selling movement began in the stock at the opening, its price being forced off from 43½ to 41⅞. Support was met at the latter figure and after a slight rally the stock became dull with the remainder of the list. At 11 o'clock the market was very dull, but steady.

Suffering the Extreme Penalty of The Law at Ozark.

TWO WALKING MATCHES.

DAMAGING WIND AND RAIN STORM.

Fruit an Flowers Destroyed and Corn Washed Out of the Ground.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BELVIDERE, O., May 10.—A most terrific hail, wind and rain storm visited this City and vicinity yesterday afternoon. Hail stones as large as walnuts fell for 30 minutes. The fruit trees were in full bloom and much damage resulted to cherries and late apples. Corn planting was about completed, but much will probably have to be replanted, the seed having been literally washed out of the ground. The florists will be the worst sufferers, hundreds of panes of glass being broken and the plants being cut to pieces. Stock which was out in the open fields and unable to get under shelter suffered severely.

RACE AT SAN FRANCISCO.

Bald Knobbers Hanged.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, May 10.—The Bald Knobbers were executed at Ozark, to-day. The drop fell at 9:53 A. M. The ropes broke and the three men fell to the ground struggling. The execution was a horribly bungled butchery. The men were carried to the scaffold again at 10:10. William Walker struggled, groaned and was almost insensible. David Walker died in 15, John Matthews in 13 and William Walker in 13 minutes.

The three Bald Knobbers, David Walker, better known in Christian County as "Bull Creek Dave," Chief of the Bald Knobbers, his son, William Walker, and John Matthews were hanged for the murder of Charles Green and William Edens on March 11, 1887. They were firmly of the opinion up to within 48 hours of the execution that they would never be called upon to pay the extreme penalty.

Held for a Requisition.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—United States Commissioner Craig to-day gave a further hearing to Rosanna Russa, alias "Teresina Bolsoma," a young Italian woman, living in Vineland, N. J., who was arrested on Monday, charged with obtaining money from the New-York Post Office by forgery, and held her in $1,500 bail to await requisition papers from New-York. Eight money orders, amounting to $400, had been sent to Adele Tango by relatives in Italy. Mrs. Tango left for her native country before their arrival, and her husband, learning that the money orders had come, induced the woman Russa to personate his wife. He is now in jail in Italy for forgery.

Coal Men Disturbed.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—Trouble in the coal trade is threatened as a result of the New-York, Ontario & Western Railroad's entrance into the northern anthracite field. The new comer has contraced to carry coal at 40 per cent. of the market price, much less than present charges. It is said the old companies will fight the new tolls as unlawful.

A COMMON SENSE LETTER.

To the Editor:—I see that newspaper articles are again making their appearance calling attention to matters pertaining to health as well as to the means whereby disease may be removed and good health preserved. I am thereby reminded that I have received from time to time, pamphlet publications issued by the well known firm of H. H. Warner's & Co., which dwell upon the history and growth of kidney diseases; showing how such is the cause of consumption, heart, brain and nervous disorders, which can only be successfully treated by removing the primary disease from the kidneys. At the same time care is taken to remind the reader that Warner's Safe Cure is the only means whereby the physician or the individual can successfully prevent and cure this class of disease.

Whilst I have personal cause to feel grateful to Warner's Safe Cure, for the benefit which I derived from it when suffering from kidney troubles last spring, I cannot see, since that remedy is already so well known in every household, why the parties interested in its manufacture should continue to expend money in calling attention to what the public already knows so well. I am aware, Mr. Editor, that the members of the medical profession are seldom disposed to give due credit to proprietary medicines, but public confidence is likely to be even more shaken in those learned gentlemen since the startling disclosures in the Robinson poisoning cases were made in Somerville, Mass.

Here it was discoved, through the efforts of an insurance company, that eight cases of death from arsenical poisoning had occurred—seven of them in one family, and within five years, and the other that of a relative—wherein the true cause of death had not been even suspected by prominent physicians who were in attendance, but who treated the case for other causes, and finally, when death occurred, issued certificates for such causes as pneumonia, typhoid fever, meningitis, etc.

After such an evidence of the utter incompetency of those physicians who were regarded as experts in their profession, I cannot conceive why it will be longer necessary for further advertising to be done in behalf of Warner's Safe Cure, since I deem the Somerville disclosure to be the best possible endorsement of the good sense manifested by those who take matters of health in their own hands and use a remedy which experience has shown to be fully adapted for the purposes intended, instead of trusting themselves in experimental hands.

I BELIEVE IT YET.

I.

There's some useful information that I got
from mother dear,
One evening when I went my girl to see;
She told me I had better be tasteful in my dress,
If from bitter disappointment I'd be free.
She told that Marks Jacobs made suits the
handsomest;
That to his store was just the place to go,
That with his help I'd surely win the girl I
loved best:
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me that a manly man should dress
in manly style,
And always like a gentleman should go;
That for this service I could trust Marks
Jacobs all the while;
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

II.

And so I went to Jacobs' store, 184 The Strand,
The next morning at the rising of the sun,
And picked me out the finest that this artist
had on hand,
And in just two days the suit complete
was done.
Then I hied me to the mansion where lived
my Katie Brown,
And her greeting was the sweetest man
can know;
She said I was the handsomest, the noblest
man in town;
I believed it, for my sweetheart told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me something better yet; she said
she would be mine,
That through this life with me she'd gladly go,
If I would wear Marks Jacobs' suits, so fitting,
neat and fine;
I believed it, for my Katie told me so.

Marks Jacobs.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

COLONEL FREDERICK D. GRANT reached Vienna yesterday, to enter upon the office of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Austria.

CORPORAL TANNER will recommend to Congress that ex-soldiers in receipt of pensions of $3.76 per month be raised to $4, and that the rate of $72 per month for total disability be changed to $100.

PRESIDENT CARNOT of France has sent assistance to the family of Perrau, the lunatic who tried to assassinate him with a blank cartridge, and Madame Carnot pleads for his release from prison. Perrau was a good soldier before he became insane.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND tons of American steel rails were sold the other day for $24.70 per ton. English rails were paid for in this country before the tariff was put on at the rate of $166 a ton. But the tariff is a tax nevertheless. It taxed the British extortionists out of the country.

PEOPLE are burying their bodies in the mud of swamps and lying flat upon their faces in Northern Michigan, while the forest fires rage above and around them. Many of them are believed to have perished. The locomotive is blazing the way of the settler whom it has carried to his new home.

THE Democratic Excise Board of New York proposes to cut down the price of saloon licenses from $850 to $250. A great influx of cheap saloon keepers who have been frozen out of Philadelphia and Boston is expected, and the reduction, it is believed, will add 10,000 votes to the party of David B. Hill.

SIXTEEN contested election cases for the fifty-first Congress to decide are already on file, and several more are coming. Not more than two of them are from Democrats who wish to unseat Republicans. If the House does its entire duty in these cases, fraud and bulldozing at the South will lose their popularity.

DANIEL V. HOUSER, an Indiana soldier, has been awarded the pension that Gen. Black denied him. His injury was caused by a fall upon the ice, the result of a push from a fellow soldier. He was in the service of the United States at the time, and hence, according to Republican interpretation, "in the line of duty."

THE steamship City of Paris, the fastest that ever crossed the Atlantic, will leave New York on her return trip next Wednesday afternoon. The Brittanic, Westernland and Aller will sail the same day, and lively racing is predicted. Tourists who wish to cross to Europe in great haste and without regard to danger can get passage on either of these "greyhounds of the Atlantic."

THE English House of Lords again defeated the deceased wife's sister's bill yesterday, and the man who wants to marry his sister-in-law will have to bring her over to the United States as has been done before. The opponents of the measure are chiefly the Lord Bishops, who realize that the Church of England would crumble to its foundations if left without this single remaining peg to stand upon.

THE Albany Express states that since 1870 the population of Albany has risen from 70,000 to 103,000, a gain of less than 50 per cent, while the municipal salary list has grown during the same time from $25,400 to $81,400, or over 220 per cent. It would be superfluous to state, after reciting these figures, that the municipal government of Albany has been steadily and unbrokenly Democratic during the entire period.

THE FREEMAN was misinformed a few days ago, it seems, in regard to Public Printer Benedict's conduct. He did not tender his resignation as stated, but had to be removed. Instead of resigning, he had been heard to declare repeatedly that if the President wanted the place he could ask for it. On Wednesday Mr. Palmer's appointment was made out and Benedict notified of the fact, but as he did not yet tender his resignation the President informed him in a brief note that he was summarily removed. Mr. Palmer is in charge to-day, and Benedict has the President's letter to prove that he is a martyr.

THE ceiling investigation committee of the Assembly reports that John Snaith, Timothy J. Sullivan and Charles B. Andrews entered into a conspiracy to rob the state by procuring the contract at an exorbitant rate, and then doing the work poorly. It recommends the removal of Andrews, the indictment of the conspirators by the grand jury, and their prosecution by the Attorney General for the recovery of the stolen money. The prosecution should be begun at once, or else there will be more stealing. It is unwise to wait till rascality becomes a good deal more transparent than it was in the days of Tweed.

FATHER DAMIEN, the Catholic priest who in 1873 enlisted as a missionary on the leper island of Molokai of the Hawaiian group, is dead. The lepers to whom he went to minister were the most abandoned, degraded and vicious people on the earth, but he labored successfully to convert them to Christianity. Five years ago he became aware that the awful disease had seized upon him, but he never faltered. He remained among his chosen people, and set a Christian example of dying, resignedly and in full confidence of a blissful immortality, the death to which they are all doomed. Such heroism and self-sacrifice as this carries one back to the days of the Apostles.

MICHAEL J. BOURKE, Collector of Special Taxes in the twenty-sixth ward of Brooklyn, formerly the town of New Lots, confesses that he has collected $40,000 and paid over only $15,000. The rest of the money he has spent in political assessments for the Democratic party, in a dry-goods enterprise and in unfortunate land speculations. His salary is $3,000 a year, but this has not been sufficient to support his family and satisfy his creditors. Bourke has three years to serve, and thinks that if let alone he will be able to make up the full amount of his defalcation. In other words, he is anxious to become a civil service reformer of himself. But Sing Sing is gaping for him.

THE RAPID TRANSIT BILL.

The Governor Sends a Message to The Legislature.

FAST TIME ON THE LAKES.

From Buffalo to Chicago in Fifty-Four Hours.

SOLDIERS' ORPHAN SCHOOL.

Members of a G. A. R. Post and Their Opinions.

THE WORLD IN MINIATURE

IN THE STATE LEGISLATURE TO-DAY.

What was Said in Reference to Anti-Bucket Shop Bill in Senate.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 10.—In the Assembly to-day Ainsworth introduced a bill for the election of School Directors in the several towns of the State. He said the bill was intended to return to the township system of school management throughout the State, and that no effort would be made to pass the bill this session, but at his request the bill was ordered to a third reading, ordered printed and referred to the Committee on Public Education.

The Governor sent a message to the Assembly saying the necessity of providing some relief for New-York City in the matter of rapid transit was the pressing question of the hour. "Every citizen of that City understands and appreciates the situation and is looking to the Legislature for prompt and wise action. It is the greatest city upon the continent but its prosperity, progress and development are hampered and restricted by insufficient and inadequate means of travel." The Governor says the bill known as the "Mayor's Rapid Transit" bill is reasonably free from objections and it is believed it will accomplish the purpose desired. "It is admitted to be an honest measure. It has no entangling alliances with any private or corporate schemes, but has been framed absolutely in the public interest and is supported by all the reputable newspapers in New-York City, and favored by nearly every representative in the Legislature from that City. There seems to be no good reason why it should not be enacted. The Governor says a suspicion is abroad that this measure cannot be passed unless some concession of a political character shall accompany it, and the delays interposed to its progress and the circumstances surrounding its opposition have seemed to justify this suspicion. It is practically certain that if the Mayor's bill does not pass there will be no relief afforded this year. It is to be hoped that the bill will not be defeated by inaction or indirection. It should be clearly understood that the measure upon which I am urging action does not compel the adoption or designate, or even indicate any particular system or plan or device to secure rapid transit for New-York City's great and increasing population. It simply confers upon the authorities of that City power to select some method which will give needed relief to the hundreds of thousands of those who are daily compelled to travel between their homes and their work-shops or offices."

IN STATE SENATE.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 10.—In the Senate to-day Fassett submitted a petition containing some 20,000 names in favor of declaring cider an intoxicating drink. Referred to the Committee on Internal Affairs.

Sloan, from the Finance Committee, reported favorably Mase's three-headed Lunacy Commission bill, amended so as to provide that the present Commissioner [Dr. Smith] shall be kept in office as the Fourth Commissioner until his term expires. The bill as amended was passed.

Husted's bill appropriating $25,000 for the State camp mess hall was received from the Assembly and ordered to a third reading.

Bills passed: Longley's, relative to the increase of capital stock of railroad corporations. The Ways and Means Committee bill relative to the payment of awards made by the Board of Claims.

When Rhodes' anti-bucket shop bill came up Grady opposed it saying it was an attempt to allow the big fishes to eat up the little. There should be no distinction between one dealer in stocks and bonds and another. He moved the bill be recommitted to the Judiciary Committee.

Robertson hoped the motion would not prevail. There was no other business which did more injury than the bucket shop.

Grady said the bill abolished "puts" and "calls."

Sloan didn't know but that was advisable. If that was all the bill did he would vote for it.

Grady said if the issuing of "puts" and "calls" was what was meant by bucket-shops then Daniel Drew was a bucket-shop-keeper. If bucket-shops were wiped out the Stock Exchanges should receive the same treatment.

BILLS SIGNED BY GOVERNOR.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 10.—The Governer has signed the following:

Chapter 278, appropriating $1,800 for the erection of a mole and adjuncts thereto from the dyke to the mainland in front of the premises of Edward McCabe, on Houghtaling's Island in the Hudson River.

Chapter 279, further providing means for the erection and completion of a Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument in Brooklyn.

Chapter 280, amending Brooklyn's consolidated laws relative to the Department of Police.

"United Brethren" Conference.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 10.—The world's quadrennial conference of the United Brethren Church is in session here. The conference is the highest legislative body of the church, and consists of ministers chosen by the vote of the members of the denomination. Each annual conference is entitled to not less than two and not more than four representatives, according to the number of its members. The principal work of this conference will be to examine the administration of each of the annual conferences and establish their boundaries; to prescribe the Episcopal districts and to assign to each one a bishop; to modify the provisions of the church discipline; to provide for the management of the different institutions of the church and to elect the general officers.

The Chester Soldiers' Orphans' School.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., May 10.—The Chester Springs Soldiers' Orphans' School matter continues to be the subject of much comment in this County. The members of McCall Post, No. 31, G. A. R., are not feeling in a very pleasant mood towards State Superintendent Higbee, because of the indifference he has shown in behalf of the suffering orphans that are pupils in that institution.

Proceedings were Uninteresting.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, May 10.—The proceedings before the Parnell Commission to-day were uninteresting. Public interest in the trial has waned since the examination of Parnell was concluded.

FAST TIME BY STEAMER CHEMUNG.

It Sailed From Buffalo to Chicago in Fifty-Four Hours.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The big steamship Chemung came down the Lake front, early this morning, with the speed of a railroad train. It was on the home stretch of the greatest long-distance run ever made on fresh water. On the last trip up, the Owego, the twin boat of the Chemung, made the remarkable time of 58 hours from Buffalo. Between the two boats, although they belong to the same line, the sharpest rivalry exists. The Chemung left Buffalo at 7:30 P. M., Tuesday, reaching Detroit in 13 hours and Port Huron in 19. The long run up Lake Huron was made in 14 hours and 10 minutes. Then the nose of the big boat was put for Chicago harbor, and it came up Lake Michigan as fast as its powerful machinery could bring it, arriving here at 2:30 this morning. Its time was 20 hours and 30 minutes from the Straits and 54 hours from Buffalo, counting the difference of an hour in time.

Marsh, Not Natural Gas.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—The digging of the well at Spreckels' sugar refinery, which it was believed contained a natural gas spring, is being proceeded with vigorously at the foot of Reed-street on the Delaware River. It was thought yesterday that the flow will not prove what was expected of it. The impression prevails that the gas is of the kind which is always forced out of swampy ground when a heavy pressure is placed upon it, and it is supposed that the immense weight of the foundations for the new refineries has had something to do with it. The ground was formerly very swampy, but was recently filled in. Mr. Spreckels does not believe that natural gas has been discovered. If the gas is good for anything the well will be developed to its fullest capacity.

Philadelphia's License Court.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—After being in session for 44 days the License Court yesterday completed its work, and although it has not finally adjourned, it is understood that no further public business will be transacted. Yesterday's session was a brief one and but sparsely attended. All four Judges were present, and no applicant this year will be justified in complaining of not being given a fair hearing, as the Court was kept in session over an hour after the actual business of the day was completed in order to allow tardy applicants to argue their claims. None of them appeared, however.

A Contractor Missing.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—One of Lock Haven's old residents, Patrick Prendible, is missing, and when last heard from he was in this city, and had just received from the sale of some bonds between $700 and $800. He came here on April 15 and called on Broker W. G. Huey to negotiate the sale of securities. Mr. Prendible was a prominent railroad contractor, and constructed the low-grade division of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad, receiving in payment bonds of the road.

Strikers Encounter Military.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BERLIN, May 10.—There was an encounter near Brockel, Westphala, to-day, between the troops and strikers. A large body of the latter had gathered and were becoming disorderly, when they were ordered to disperse by the officer commanding the military. The strikers refused. After warning them of the consequences and no attention being paid to the warning, the officer ordered the soldiers to fire. Three of the miners were killed and several wounded.

Effects of a European Coal Strike.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BERLIN, May 10.—Many iron works have been obliged to extinguish the fires in their furnaces in consequence of the strike. The number of strikers has reached 70,000. At a meeting of 5,000 strikers in Bochum yesterday, it was resolved to insist upon their demands. The Krupp Works have arranged to obtain coal from Upper Silesia and England and will resume the making of rails.

The Great Salt Lake Race.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

DENVER, May 10.—Oarsmen O'Connor, Lee, Gaudaur, Hamm and Petersen will row on the Great Salt Lake, on the second of June, a single scull race, three miles with turn, for a $1,500 purse, to be divided as follows: $800 to the winner, $400 to the second, $200 to the third and $100 to the fourth. A San Francisco man offers a $250 purse to the man who breaks the world's record.

Killed at a Grade Crossing.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—Patrol wagon No. 8, attached to the Twenty-Second Police District, was struck by a train at Thirteenth and Cumberland-streets, last night, and three officers were injured and a horse killed.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Leading Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 10.—The opening of the stock market this morning was extremely dull and at prices practically unchanged from those of last evening. Atchison and Oregon Transcontinental were still leaders in activity, but St. Paul was quiet, its place being taken by Union Pacific. The market displayed a heavy to weak tone, but outside of Atchison the fluctuations were insignificant, though Rock Island after opening up ½ retired ⅝ and Oregon Transcontinental continued strong, rising a fraction. The changes in the Atchison directory did not inspire the confidence expected and a lively selling movement began in the stock at the opening, its price being forced off from 43½ to 41⅞. Support was met at the latter figure and after a slight rally the stock became dull with the remainder of the list. At 11 o'clock the market was very dull, but steady.

TWO WALKING MATCHES.

DAMAGING WIND AND RAIN STORM.

Fruit an Flowers Destroyed and Corn Washed Out of the Ground.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BELVIDERE, O., May 10.—A most terrific hail, wind and rain storm visited this City and vicinity yesterday afternoon. Hail stones as large as walnuts fell for 30 minutes. The fruit trees were in full bloom and much damage resulted to cherries and late apples. Corn planting was about completed, but much will probably have to be replanted, the seed having been literally washed out of the ground. The florists will be the worst sufferers, hundreds of panes of glass being broken and the plants being cut to pieces. Stock which was out in the open fields and unable to get under shelter suffered severely.

STILL WALKING IN NEW-YORK CITY.

The Contest in Madison Square Garden—The Score This Afternoon.

By Telegraph to The Freeman

NEW-YORK, May 10.—The following is the 2 o'clock score in the walking match that is now in progress in Madison Square Garden: Herty, 448; Cartwright, 434; Noremac, 425; Hegleman, 425; Hughes, 418; Smith, 404; Golden, 402; Adams, 395.

RACE AT SAN FRANCISCO.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—A six-day go-as-you-please race opened at the Mechanics' Pavillion last night. Among the contestants are G. Gurerro, E. C. Moore, James Albert, Hart, Taylor, Howarth, Vint and Campana.

Bald Knobbers Hanged.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, May 10.—The Bald Knobbers were executed at Ozark, to-day. The drop fell at 9:53 A. M. The ropes broke and the three men fell to the ground struggling. The execution was a horribly bungled butchery. The men were carried to the scaffold again at 10:10. William Walker struggled, groaned and was almost insensible. David Walker died in 15, John Matthews in 13 and William Walker in 13 minutes.

The three Bald Knobbers, David Walker, better known in Christian County as "Bull Creek Dave," Chief of the Bald Knobbers, his son, William Walker, and John Matthews were hanged for the murder of Charles Green and William Edens on March 11, 1887. They were firmly of the opinion up to within 48 hours of the execution that they would never be called upon to pay the extreme penalty.

Held for a Requisition.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.-United States Commissioner Craig to-day gave a further hearing to Rosanna Russa, alias "Teresina Bolsoma," a young Italian woman, living in Vineland, N. J., who was arrested on Monday, charged with obtaining money from the New-York Post Office by forgery, and held her in $1,500 bail to await requisition papers from New-York. Eight money orders, amounting to $400, had been sent to Adele Tango by relatives in Italy. A COMMON SENSE LETTER.

To the Editor:—I see that newspaper articles are again making their appearance calling attention to matters pertaining to health as well as to the means whereby disease may be removed and good health preserved. I am thereby reminded that I have received from time to time, pamphlet publications issued by the well known firm of H. H. Warner's & Co., which dwell upon the history and growth of kidney diseases; showing how such is the cause of consumption, heart, brain and nervous disorders, which can only be successfully treated by removing the primary disease from the kidneys. At the same time care is taken to remind the reader that Warner's Safe Cure is the only means whereby the physician or the individual can successfully prevent and cure this class of disease.

Whilst I have personal cause to feel grateful to Warner's Safe Cure, for the benefit which I derived from it when suffering from kidney troubles last spring, I cannot see, since that remedy is already so well known in every household, why the parties interested in its manufacture should continue to expend money in calling attention to what the public already knows so well. I am aware, Mr. Editor, that the members of the medical profession are seldom disposed to give due credit to proprietary medicines, but public confidence is likely to be even more shaken in those learned gentlemen since the startling disclosures in the Robinson poisoning cases were made in Somerville, Mass.

Here it was discoved, through the efforts of an insurance company, that eight cases of death from arsenical poisoning had occurred—seven of them in one family, and within five years, and the other that of a relative—wherein the true cause of death had not been even suspected by prominent physicians who were in attendance, but who treated the case for other causes, and finally, when death occurred, issued certificates for such causes as pneumonia, typhoid fever, meningitis, etc.

After such an evidence of the utter incompetency of those physicians who were regarded as experts in their profession, I cannot conceive why it will be longer necessary for further advertising to be done in behalf of Warner's Safe Cure, since I deem the Somerville disclosure to be the best possible endorsement of the good sense manifested by those who take matters of health in their own hands and use a remedy which experience has shown to be fully adapted for the purposes intended, instead of trusting themselves in experimental hands.

I BELIEVE IT YET.

I.

There's some useful information that I got
from mother dear,
One evening when I went my girl to see;
She told me I had better be tasteful in my
dress,
If from bitter disappointment I'd be free.
She told that Marks Jacobs made suits the
handsomest;
That to his store was just the place to go,
That with his help I'd surely win the girl I
loved best:
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me that a manly man should dress
in manly style,
And always like a gentleman should go;
That for this service I could trust Marks
Jacobs all the while;
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

II.

And so I went to Jacobs' store, 184 The Strand,
The next morning at the rising of the sun,
And picked me out the finest that this artist
had on hand,
And in just two days the suit complete
was done.
Then I hied me to the mansion where lived
my Katie Brown,
And her greeting was the sweetest man
can know;
She said I was the handsomest, the noblest
man in town;
I believed it, for my sweetheart told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me something better yet; she said
she would be mine,
That through this life with me she'd gladly go,
If I would wear Marks Jacobs' suits, so fitting,
neat and fine;
I believed it, for my Katie told me so.

THE GOVERNOR INSULTED

Gov. Hill was actually burned in effigy at Binghamton last Tuesday night. Democrats supplied the hat and trousers with which the image was clothed, Democrats made the condemnatory speeches, and a Democratic orator applied the match. The offense that angered them was the veto of the bill to extend the limits of the city. It had been prepared with general approval, was satisfactory to all the people of the city, and there were no politics in it. But the Governor fancied that the enlargement would take in a few more Republicans than Democrats, and make the work of carrying the city by his party a little harder and more uncertain. The men who celebrated the veto with an indignation meeting, an effigy and a match, were those who expected to be taken into the city but were left out. The reason advanced by the Governor to cover his real objections was that annexation would make the tenth ward too large. Here is the speech of E. J. Barnes, one of the disappointed:

I have been active in this matter of annexation I have always been a Democrat and more than an ordinary Democrat. I have always supported Hill. There was no part of this bill that could be construed as special legislation. I had a hand in framing the bill and I looked out for that. The bill was vetoed simply because some political vagabonds in this town (applause) henchmen of David B. Hill, ordered it vetoed. Hill never lived here and never will. His henchmen do not live here. But still he vetoes the bill because it would make the Tenth ward too large. I have always been a Democrat, but now as far as politics are concerned I am all turned about and I don't know where I am. I could not have been more astonished by an earthquake than I was by this veto. But talk amounts to nothing. We're left. We can't pass the bill over his veto, and we might as well clean our country door yards, look as respectable as possible and do the best we can. We are left without lights, without police or fire protection, and without school facilities, and we owe it all to David B. Hill.

We quote some other speeches. H. S. Chase closed his remarks thus:

If ever there was cause for indignation, it is when the Governor of a great state insults the sovereign people of that state and makes therefor the excuse of a pothouse politician. I have been a Democrat all my life. I can't change my convictions in a single night; but if the interests of a common people, irrespective of party, are to be trampled on by the Democracy of this state, I can't support such Democracy.

Mr. Kinney was the man who applied the match. Here is his preliminary speech:

Friends—I am asked to say a few preliminary words. We are here holding an indignation meeting in order to show to Governor Hill and his henchmen how the North End feels about his veto of the city extension bill. We were united, irrespective of politics, in our desire to be incorporated in the city of Binghamton. We worked hard, raised the necessary money and framed the bill. It was endorsed by the City Council and passed by the Legislature. Without any just cause he has vetoed this bill, and so, friends and neighbors, we have hanged the Executive of this state and we are going to burn him.

No other Governor of this state was ever burned in effigy. There have been unpopular and hated Governors before Hill, but respect for the great office has restrained the offended people from putting this lasting brand of shame upon them. We do not see anything to approve in this Binghamton performance. It was the act of persons whose indignation over an inexcusable injustice carried them beyond the bounds of reason. Insult could be carried no further than when they made an image of Hill, labeled it "Old Peanuts," hung it up by the neck, and then roasted it.

Gov. Hill has made his entire reputation for political sagacity and smartness upon his vetoes of beneficial legislation. There is in it a kind of audacity that in its first effect commands the admiration of certain people, who are disposed to applaud it as heroism. Gov. Hill has been flattered for this sort of performance till his head is turned, and he is in serious danger of overdoing the thing, or in slang phrase of "running it into the ground" and himself along with it. The effigy business will be remembered by the people of Binghamton as long as Mr. Hill remains in public life.

WHERE IS THE SURPLUS NOW?

Though dead to political life, the late Secretary Fairchild is not likely to be forgotten. Whether he deceived Mr. Cleveland on the subject of a Treasury surplus in his annual report for 1887, or whether President and Secretary entered into a combination to deceive the people, is not of much consequence now. He certainly put into the hands of the President a free trade argument in that report, and the argument wrecked his party.

Mr. Fairchild estimated the government receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1889, at $383,000,000 and the expenditures, including the sinking fund, at $326,530,793. This would create a surplus of $56,469,206, not including the sinking fund, though Mr. Fairchild falsely counted that fund as surplus, in order to make a bigger showing for free trade. This enabled him to report an estimated surplus, on paper, of $104,313,365.

We are now within two months of the end of the fiscal year for which these estimates were made. The receipts for the ten months past have been $317,683,213. The same rate of collection continued to the close of the year will give about $381,000,000, or $2,000,000 less than Mr. Fairchild's estimate. The expenditures for ten months have been $261,865,368. The same rate of expenditure continued to the end of the year will make a total of $314,000,000 exclusive of the sinking fund of about $47,000,000. Thus the surplus drops from an estimate of $56,000,000 to $20,000,000 or less. The urgency for tariff reduction disappears, and there will be hardly a sufficient margin for even a reduction of the internal revenue unless Gen. Harrison's administration succeeds in reducing expenditures greatly below the rate at which they were maintained by Mr. Cleveland during the first eight months of the fiscal year.

SOUTH AMERICAN IMMIGRATION.

The Argentine Republic was in such pressing need of a larger population that it offered extraordinary inducements to immigrants, paying their passage money, furnishing them board after landing for fifteen days, giving them land for the mere occupancy thereof, and assisting them in various ways to get a start in life. The effect was what might be expected. The immigrants are coming more rapidly than the country is able to provide for them. The plan brings the poorest and most worthless, while those who are sufficiently prosperous to provide for themselves still turn their steps towards the United States. The Argentine plan is operating upon our own immigration like a sieve; all the trash is sifted through, and the best is left for us. It is estimated that not fewer than 370,000 immigrants will land in the silver republic during 1889, in search of bread and employment or land. To add this to the 2,400,000 inhabitants already there would be like adding 10,000,000 foreigners to our population in a single year. What to do with such an accumulation, hungry, destitute, and in the main helpless and shiftless, is likely to prove a problem so serious as to cause the extraordinary inducements to be withdrawn. The Argentine country contains about 540,000,000 acres of land of all sorts, but it needs sturdier hands than those of Italians, Spaniards and Bohemians to coax a livelihood out of it.

HOW LONG THE PEACH TREES RESTED.

The fruit-raisers of the Hudson Valley are beginning the second century of the Republic well, for, instead of announcing in their gloomiest manner the complete failure of all sorts of fruit that are dear to the eye and the palate, it is given out that there is every reason to believe that the yield this year will be the most prolific on record. Some of the statements in connection with this are a little hard to understand, as, for instance, this: "The peach-growers say that the year and a half's rest the trees have had will cause this year's fruit to be more juicy and finer in fibre than since 1886." Of course we shall all rejoice in juicier and finer-fibred peaches, though we may not be able quite to comprehend how the trees have had a "year and a half's rest."—New York Tribune.

We beg the Tribune not to leave us under the apprehension that all of its brains sailed away when the great editor took his departure for Paris. Does it not know that the peach trees bore fruit in 1887, and that they were relieved of their load in October or November of that year? That was about a year and a half ago. They rested during the winter, and then entered upon a whole year's rest by declining to load up with fruit in the season of 1888. Now they are beginning to load again. The Tribune will be all right when the arithmetic editor comes back.

BERRIES AND SUGAR.

There is no kind of food more sought after, more palatable, or healthier when rightly used during the summer months, than fruit; and it is pleasant to learn that unusually large crops of grapes, peaches, apples and strawberries are expected to be gathered in the great fruit-growing sections of the country. A drawback to this good news, however, is the advance in the price of sugar. There is no rose without its thorn.—Philadelphia Record.

Well, the man who cannot eat strawberries without sugar would not be an object of pity if he were compelled to go without them. And in relation to peaches it is a still greater superfluity, while for grapes and apples it is simply ridiculous. Wait till the fruit is ripe, and then take it as it grows. It is food for kings and good health will follow. The sugar trust would go to the wall if the fools who spoil their summer fruit by sweetening it would learn to eat it as nature meant it to be eaten. Let sugar go out when the berries come in, and the sugar speculators will hear something drop.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Binghamton burned Gov. Hill in effigy Tuesday night, for vetoing the charter extension bill. The Governor will get even by spelling the name with a "p" hereafter.—Saratogian.

The information that a number of the saloon keepers of Massachusetts, who have been compelled to close their places by the high license restrictions, intend to come to Rhode Island, where they can enjoy the absolute freedom of the prohibitory law, is a very practical argument against an impossible law.—Providence Journal.

Neither David B. Hill, nor Grover Cleveland, nor William C. Whitney will lie awake nights because of the avowed candidacy for Democratic Presidential nomination of 1893 of General Palmer of Illinois. They are perfectly aware of the antagonism of their party to any old soldier, and therefore will not regard the Illinois man as even a possibility.—Graphic.

As the Commission is now constituted Civil Service Reform for the first time is committed to the hands of its friends. It is also an abler body than it heretofore has been. It gives the Record great pleasure to commend the action of President Harrison. He has done what the country expected of him, and what his pledges required. If he shall live up to the quality of his Commission he will do well enough.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

That protection (from the South, which we already enjoy) is the barrier of high industrial intelligence and skill. If we know how to make laces or watches or tools or telephones better than any body else in the country, we have a natural protection which no law can rob us of. That is the line in which we may still hold our prosperity after the heavy industries which require great expenditures of brute force have left us.—Springfield Union.

The Attorney General of Missouri has appointed his wife as his first Assistant, which leads the Washington Star to remark: "If this is not running an office on the family plan, what is it? But who ever heard of the offense taking such a form before?" Strictly speaking, the transaction was not an appointment, but rather a confirmation. If the lady has been a good wife, she has been her husband's first assistant since their marriage.—Utica Observer, Dem.

In an incident just made public, Corporal Tanner appears to fresh advantage. A Democratic special pension examiner out in Ohio, an old soldier, forwarded his resignation. The corporal looked up his record and then wrote him a letter in which he said he could not advise the Secretary of the Interior to accept the resignation, as it was not intended to dismiss any old soldiers efficiently discharging their duties from that department of the public service because of their political opinions.—Hartford Courant.

For unadulterated buncombe—buncombe of the most brazen variety, rampant buncombe, buncombe that nauseates—commend us to Governor Hill's assertion in his recent veto: "I am not the Governor of a class or a faction, or even a party. I am the Executive of the will of the people of this state." Think of a notorious peanut politician like Hill, who lives, moves and has his being in partisan politics, talking like that. "Not the Governor of a class," when his subserviency to the liquor dealers is known of all men; not the Governor of "a faction," when he sneezes whenever Tammany Hall takes snuff; not the Governor of "a party," when his avowed reason for vetoing the police bill was strictly a party reason. Humbug and Hill both begin with an H.—New York Tribune.

THE GOVERNOR INSULTED

Gov. Hill was actually burned in effigy at Binghamton last Tuesday night. Democrats supplied the hat and trousers with which the image was clothed, Democrats made the condemnatory speeches, and a Democratic orator applied the match. The offense that angered them was the veto of the bill to extend the limits of the city. It had been prepared with general approval, was satisfactory to all the people of the city, and there were no politics in it. But the Governor fancied that the enlargement would take in a few more Republicans than Democrats, and make the work of carrying the city by his party a little harder and more uncertain. The men who celebrated the veto with an indignation meeting, an effigy and a match, were those who expected to be taken into the city but were left out. The reason advanced by the Governor to cover his real objections was that annexation would make the tenth ward too large. Here is the speech of E. J. Barnes, one of the disappointed:

I have been active in this matter of annexation I have always been a Democrat and more than an ordinary Democrat. I have always supported Hill. There was no part of this bill that could be construed as special legislation. I had a hand in framing the bill and I looked out for that. The bill was vetoed simply because some political vagabonds in this town (applause) henchmen of David B. Hill, ordered it vetoed. Hill never lived here and never will. His henchmen do not live here. But still he vetoes the bill because it would make the Tenth ward too large. I have always been a Democrat, but now as far as politics are concerned I am all turned about and I don't know where I am. I could not have been more astonished by an earthquake than I was by this veto. But talk amounts to nothing. We're left. We can't pass the bill over his veto, and we might as well clean our country door yards, look as respectable as possible and do the best we can. We are left without lights, without police or fire protection, and without school facilities, and we owe it all to David B. Hill.

We quote some other speeches. H. S. Chase closed his remarks thus:

If ever there was cause for indignation, it is when the Governor of a great state insults the sovereign people of that state and makes therefor the excuse of a pothouse politician. I have been a Democrat all my life. I can't change my convictions in a single night; but if the interests of a common people, irrespective of party, are to be trampled on by the Democracy of this state, I can't support such Democracy.

Mr. Kinney was the man who applied the match. Here is his preliminary speech:

Friends—I am asked to say a few preliminary words. We are here holding an indignation meeting in order to show to Governor Hill and his henchmen how the North End feels about his veto of the city extension bill. We were united, irrespective of politics, in our desire to be incorporated in the city of Binghamton. We worked hard, raised the necessary money and framed the bill. It was endorsed by the City Council and passed by the Legislature. Without any just cause he has vetoed this bill, and so, friends and neighbors, we have hanged the Executive of this state and we are going to burn him.

No other Governor of this state was ever burned in effigy. There have been unpopular and hated Governors before Hill, but respect for the great office has restrained the offended people from putting this lasting brand of shame upon them. We do not see anything to approve in this Binghamton performance. It was the act of persons whose indignation over an inexcusable injustice carried them beyond the bounds of reason. Insult could be carried no further than when they made an image of Hill, labeled it "Old Peanuts," hung it up by the neck, and then roasted it.

Gov. Hill has made his entire reputation for political sagacity and smartness upon his vetoes of beneficial legislation. There is in it a kind of audacity that in its first effect commands the admiration of certain people, who are disposed to applaud it as heroism. Gov. Hill has been flattered for this sort of performance till his head is turned, and he is in serious danger of overdoing the thing, or in slang phrase of "running it into the ground" and himself along with it. The effigy business will be remembered by the people of Binghamton as long as Mr. Hill remains in public life.

WHERE IS THE SURPLUS NOW?

Though dead to political life, the late Secretary Fairchild is not likely to be forgotten. Whether he deceived Mr. Cleveland on the subject of a Treasury surplus in his annual report for 1887, or whether President and Secretary entered into a combination to deceive the people, is not of much consequence now. He certainly put into the hands of the President a free trade argument in that report, and the argument wrecked his party.

Mr. Fairchild estimated the government receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1889, at $383,000,000 and the expenditures, including the sinking fund, at $326,530,793. This would create a surplus of $56,469,206, not including the sinking fund, though Mr. Fairchild falsely counted that fund as surplus, in order to make a bigger showing for free trade. This enabled him to report an estimated surplus, on paper, of $104,313,365.

We are now within two months of the end of the fiscal year for which these estimates were made. The receipts for the ten months past have been $317,683,213. The same rate of collection continued to the close of the year will give about $381,000,000, or $2,000,000 less than Mr. Fairchild's estimate. The expenditures for ten months have been $261,865,368. The same rate of expenditure continued to the end of the year will make a total of $314,000,000 exclusive of the sinking fund of about $47,000,000. Thus the surplus drops from an estimate of $56,000,000 to $20,000,000 or less. The urgency for tariff reduction disappears, and there will be hardly a sufficient margin for even a reduction of the internal revenue unless Gen. Harrison's administration succeeds in reducing expenditures greatly below the rate at which they were maintained by Mr. Cleveland during the first eight months of the fiscal year.

SOUTH AMERICAN IMMIGRATION.

The Argentine Republic was in such pressing need of a larger population that it offered extraordinary inducements to immigrants, paying their passage money, furnishing them board after landing for fifteen days, giving them land for the mere occupancy thereof, and assisting them in various ways to get a start in life. The effect was what might be expected. The immigrants are coming more rapidly than the country is able to provide for them. The plan brings the poorest and most worthless, while those who are sufficiently prosperous to provide for themselves still turn their steps towards the United States. The Argentine plan is operating upon our own immigration like a sieve; all the trash is sifted through, and the best is left for us. It is estimated that not fewer than 370,000 immigrants will land in the silver republic during 1889, in search of bread and employment or land. To add this to the 2,400,000 inhabitants already there would be like adding 10,000,000 foreigners to our population in a single year. What to do with such an accumulation, hungry, destitute, and in the main helpless and shiftless, is likely to prove a problem so serious as to cause the extraordinary inducements to be withdrawn. The Argentine country contains about 540,000,000 acres of land of all sorts, but it needs sturdier hands than those of Italians, Spaniards and Bohemians to coax a livelihood out of it.

HOW LONG THE PEACH TREES RESTED.

The fruit-raisers of the Hudson Valley are beginning the second century of the Republic well, for, instead of announcing in their gloomiest manner the complete failure of all sorts of fruit that are dear to the eye and the palate, it is given out that there is every reason to believe that the yield this year will be the most prolific on record. Some of the statements in connection with this are a little hard to understand, as, for instance, this: "The peach-growers say that the year and a half's rest the trees have had will cause this year's fruit to be more juicy and finer in fibre than since 1886." Of course we shall all rejoice in juicier and finer-fibred peaches, though we may not be able quite to comprehend how the trees have had a "year and a half's rest."—New York Tribune.

We beg the Tribune not to leave us under the apprehension that all of its brains sailed away when the great editor took his departure for Paris. Does it not know that the peach trees bore fruit in 1887, and that they were relieved of their load in October or November of that year? That was about a year and a half ago. They rested during the winter, and then entered upon a whole year's rest by declining to load up with fruit in the season of 1888. Now they are beginning to load again. The Tribune will be all right when the arithmetic editor comes back.

BERRIES AND SUGAR.

There is no kind of food more sought after, more palatable, or healthier when rightly used during the summer months, than fruit; and it is pleasant to learn that unusually large crops of grapes, peaches, apples and strawberries are expected to be gathered in the great fruit-growing sections of the country. A drawback to this good news, however, is the advance in the price of sugar. There is no rose without its thorn.—Philadelphia Record.

Well, the man who cannot eat strawberries without sugar would not be an object of pity if he were compelled to go without them. And in relation to peaches it is a still greater superfluity, while for grapes and apples it is simply ridiculous. Wait till the fruit is ripe, and then take it as it grows. It is food for kings and good health will follow. The sugar trust would go to the wall if the fools who spoil their summer fruit by sweetening it would learn to eat it as nature meant it to be eaten. Let sugar go out when the berries come in, and the sugar speculators will hear something drop.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Binghamton burned Gov. Hill in effigy Tuesday night, for vetoing the charter extension bill. The Governor will get even by spelling the name with a "p" hereafter.—Saratogian.

The information that a number of the saloon keepers of Massachusetts, who have been compelled to close their places by the high license restrictions, intend to come to Rhode Island, where they can enjoy the absolute freedom of the prohibitory law, is a very practical argument against an impossible law. —Providence Journal.

Neither David B. Hill, nor Grover Cleveland, nor William C. Whitney will lie awake nights because of the avowed candidacy for Democratic Presidential nomination of 1893 of General Palmer of Illinois. They are perfectly aware of the antagonism of their party to any old soldier, and therefore will not regard the Illinois man as even a possibility. —Graphic.

As the Commission is now constituted Civil Service Reform for the first time is committed to the hands of its friends. It is also an abler body than it heretofore has been. It gives the Record great pleasure to commend the action of President Harrison. He has done what the country expected of him, and what his pledges required. If he shall live up to the quality of his Commission he will do well enough.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

That protection (from the South, which we already enjoy) is the barrier of high industrial intelligence and skill. If we know how to make laces or watches or tools or telephones better than any body else in the country, we have a natural protection which no law can rob us of. That is the line in which we may still hold our prosperity after the heavy industries which require great expenditures of brute force have left us.—Springfield Union.

The Attorney General of Missouri has appointed his wife as his first Assistant, which leads the Washington Star to remark: "If this is not running an office on the family plan, what is it? But who ever heard of the offense taking such a form before?" Strictly speaking, the transaction was not an appointment, but rather a confirmation. If the lady has been a good wife, she has been her husband's first assistant since their marriage.— Utica Observer, Dem.

In an incident just made public, Corporal Tanner appears to fresh advantage. A Democratic special pension examiner out in Ohio, an old soldier, forwarded his resignation. The corporal looked up his record and then wrote him a letter in which he said he could not advise the Secretary of the Interior to accept the resignation, as it was not intended to dismiss any old soldiers efficiently discharging their duties from that department of the public service because of their political opinions.—Hartford Courant.

For unadulterated buncombe—buncombe of the most brazen variety, rampant buncombe, buncombe that nauseates—commend us to Governor Hill's assertion in his recent veto: "I am not the Governor of a class or a faction, or even a party. I am the Executive of the will of the people of this state." Think of a notorious peanut politician like Hill, who lives, moves and has his being in partisan politics, talking like that. "Not the Governor of a class," when his subserviency to the liquor dealers is known of all men; not the Governor of "a faction," when he sneezes whenever Tammany Hall takes snuff; not the Governor of "a party," when his avowed reason for vetoing the police bill was strictly a party reason. Humbug and Hill both begin with an H.—New York Tribune.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

CARD OF THANKS.

I hereby desire to extend to all of my friends my thanks for the many kindnesses extended to me during my past illness of over three months, from rheumatism, and I especially desire to tell them that but for Sulphur Bitters I should have been suffering still. May you never suffer what I have, is the wish of your friend, B. H. Tayleur.

Rheumatism is caused by an acid in the blood; therefore, external treatment affords no permanent relief. To eliminate the poison and make a thorough cure of the disease, nothing else is so efficient as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Give it a trial. Price $1. Worth $5 a bottle.

One of my children, a girl about nine years old, had a very bad discharge from her head and nose of a thick, yellowish matter. We had two physicians for her, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm, and in a short time the discharge was apparently cured. —O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

THE WORLD MOVES!

Don't disgust everybody with the offensive odor from your catarrh just because some old fogy doctor, who has not discovered and will not believe that the world moves, tells you it cannot be cured. The manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have for many years offered, in good faith, $500 reward for a case of nasal catarrh, no matter how bad or of how long standing, which they cannot cure. They are thoroughly responsible financially, as any one can learn by proper inquiry through druggists [who sell the medicine at only 50 cents], and they "mean business."

PEERLESS DYES Are the Best Sold by druggist

The Old Doctors

Drew blood, modern doctors cleanse it, hence the increased demand for Alteratives. It is now well known that most diseases are due not to over-abundance, but impurity of the blood, and it is equally well attested that no blood medicine is so efficacious as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"One of my children had a large sore break out on the leg. We applied simple remedies, for a while, thinking the sore would shortly heal. But it grew worse. We sought medical advice, and were told that an alterative medicine was necessary. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being above all others, we used it with marvelous results. The sore healed and health and strength rapidly returned."—J. J. Armstrong, Weimar, Texas.

"I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be an admirable remedy for the cure of blood diseases. I prescribe it, and it does the work every time."—E. L. Pater, M. D., Manhattan, Kansas.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommended it when asked to name the best blood-purifier."—W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio.

"Ayer's medicines continue to be the stand ard remedies in spite of all competition."—T. W Richmond, Bear Lake, Mich.

Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. At the time President Lincoln was assassinated, Mr. Pearce and his sister were en route from Providence to Newburn, N. C. They bore a striking resemblance to J. Wilkes Booth and Mrs. Surratt, and despite their protests they were placed under arrest. That night an attempt was made to shoot the supposed assassins, and the plan of taking them out and shooting them was discussed by the officers. But good counsel prevailed, and the protests of the alleged Booth were listened to and the travellers released.

Sustained by the Treating Habit.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Rondout requests THE FREEMAN to print the following:

The New-York Times reports an interesting conversation between one of its staff and the owner of a corner liquor store. The latter had been having a dull day, and was lamenting the fact that there had been little or no treating going on. "People may talk all they like about the abolishing or curtailing the liquor traffic," he said, "but they can't do it as long as the treating habit is followed up as it is now. It is treating that gives most of us saloon-keepers the most of our income. If our customers come in one by one and get their drinks and go out, the receipts are very slow in footing up. But if they meet in front of the bar and get sociable, therein is our harvest. When they set to talking politics, then is the high noon of our prosperity." The saloon-keeper concludes by saying that if temperance people wish to repress the saloons they should do it by repressing the treating habit. Unfortunately for him the only practicable way of repressing the treating habit is by the suppression of the treating place.—Christian Union.

While the treating habit cannot be entirely suppressed, without "suppressing the treating place," each individual can suppress it, so far as he is concerned, by merely exercising his own will power.

Literary Notes.

An interesting description of the Lyman Place at Waltham, Mass., is given in Garden and Forest for May 8.

A recent dispatch announced the death of a photographer in North Africa at the hands of some of the Arabs, who consider the mysterious copier of nature a sacrilegious magician. The first impression was that it might be David Ker, newspaper correspondent, who was known to have taken a camera among those Mohammedans, risking the danger of their fanaticism purposely. But Mr. Ker has just turned up in New-York, and the result of his further travels, illustrated by his own photographs, will appear in the Cosmopolitan. In the May number he describes the present site of ancient Carthage. Mr. Ker is a prolific contributor to the columns of the New-York Times.

The second paper in "The Great Agitation" series, recording the history of the anti-slavery movement, in the Cosmopolitan magazine, presents in the May number the career of Benjamin Lundy, the earliest anti-slavery journalist. The writer was his comrade, Frank B. Sanborn. Among the contributors to follow are Oliver Johnson, the octogenarian, last survivor of the group who founded the first anti-slavery society with Garrison, Mrs. Abby M. Diaz, famed for her work in anti-slavery conventions, Julia Ward Howe, Thomas Wentworth Higginson, Parker Pillsbury, and many other celebrities in the cause of human freedom. The pro-slavery side of the contest will also be given from the pens of Southerners.

Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at Van Deusen Bros. and F. J. R. Clarke's drug stores.

HOW NICE

Miss Bell is looking, Addie. Yes, Laura. Why, only a year ago her face was completely covered with pimples, blotches and sores. She told mother that she owed her nice, clear complexion to her using Sulphur Bitters. Well, Laura, I shall try them too.

The Old Doctors

Drew blood, modern doctors cleanse it, hence the increased demand for Alteratives. It is now well known that most diseases are due not to over-abundance, but impurity of the blood, and it is equally well attested that no blood medicine is so efficacious as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"One of my children had a large sore break out on the leg. We applied simple remedies, for a while, thinking the sore would shortly heal. But it grew worse. We sought medical advice, and were told that an alterative medicine was necessary. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being above all others, we used it with marvelous results. The sore healed and health and strength rapidly returned."—J. J. Armstrong, Weimar, Texas.

"I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be an admirable remedy for the cure of blood diseases. I prescribe it, and it does the work every time."—E. L. Pater, M. D., Manhattan, Kansas.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommended it when asked to name the best blood-purifier."—W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio.

Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. Sustained by the Treating Habit.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Rondout requests THE FREEMAN to print the following:

The New-York Times reports an interesting conversation between one of its staff and the owner of a corner liquor store. The latter had been having a dull day, and was lamenting the fact that there had been little or no treating going on. "People may talk all they like about the abolishing or curtailing the liquor traffic," he said, "but they can't do it as long as the treating habit is followed up as it is now. It is treating that gives most of us saloon-keepers the most of our income. If our customers come in one by one and get their drinks and go out, the receipts are very slow in footing up. But if they meet in front of the bar and get sociable, therein is our harvest. When they set to talking politics, then is the high noon of our prosperity." The saloon-keeper concludes by saying that if temperance people wish to repress the saloons they should do it by repressing the treating habit. Unfortunately for him the only practicable way of repressing the treating habit is by the suppression of the treating place.—Christian Union.

While the treating habit cannot be entirely suppressed, without "suppressing the treating place," each individual can suppress it, so far as he is concerned, by merely exercising his own will power.

Literary Notes.

An interesting description of the Lyman Place at Waltham, Mass., is given in Garden and Forest for May 8.

A recent dispatch announced the death of a photographer in North Africa at the hands of some of the Arabs, who consider the mysterious copier of nature a sacrilegious magician. The first impression was that it might be David Ker, newspaper correspondent, who was known to have taken a camera among those Mohammedans, risking the danger of their fanaticism purposely. But Mr. Ker has just turned up in New-York, and the result of his further travels, illustrated by his own photographs, will appear in the Cosmopolitan. In the May number he describes the present site of ancient Carthage. Mr. Ker is a prolific contributor to the columns of the New-York Times.

The second paper in "The Great Agitation" series, recording the history of the anti-slavery movement, in the Cosmopolitan magazine, presents in the May number the career of Benjamin Lundy, the earliest anti-slavery journalist. The writer was his comrade, Frank B. Sanborn. Among the contributors to follow are Oliver Johnson, the octogenarian, last survivor of the group who founded the first anti-slavery society with Garrison, Mrs. Abby M. Diaz, famed for her work in anti-slavery conventions, Julia Ward Howe, Thomas Wentworth Higginson, Parker Pillsbury, and many other celebrities in the cause of human freedom. The pro-slavery side of the contest will also be given from the pens of Southerners.

HOME NEWS PARAGRAPHED

BITS OF CHAT AND GOSSIP OVERHEARD HERE TO-DAY.

From the Hill Top in the Seventh Ward—The Pernicious Effect of Using Tobacco—Red Men Entertained Here—That Suspicious Case on Hasbrouck-Avenue.

The number of small boys who smoke on the streets here is increasing. It is a pernicious habit. Dr. Lyman, an expert, reports in the New-York Medical Journal some accurate investigations concerning the use of tobacco. "In an observation of 38 boys of all classes of society and of average health, who had been using tobacco for from two months to two years, 27 showed serious injury to the constitution and checked physical development. Thirty-two showed damage done to the heart's action, disordered digestion and a craving for alcohol. Thirteen had intermittency of the pulse and one had consumption. After the abandonment of tobacco within six months one-half were free from all the above symptoms, and the remainder were cured by the end of the year." The Maoris are given as an instance of the evil resulting from tobacco. This race was, when first discovered, the finest developed of any tribe on the Pacific. It is now decimated in numbers and degenerate in type. This is said to be owing to their inordinate fondness for tobacco."

Complaint is made by certain people living on high elevations in Rondout that the blowing of whistles of brickyards at East-Kingston and other near by localities at about 3 o'clock mornings is a nuisance. A resident of Chester-street said this forenoon: "The blowing of whistles on brickyards at so early an hour mornings should be abated. It is annoying to people who are ill and to people who have sensitive nerves. I spoke to a manufacturer not long ago about the nuisance, and he made the excuse for blowing the whistle so early that many of his workmen lived two miles away, and that they had to be awakened in that manner. I suggested to him that all the people in this City did not work on brickyards, but he replied that made no difference—it was a custom that had long been in vogue by brick-makers, and must be kept up."

Many homes on the hills in the Seventh Ward are charmingly situated From them are obtainable panoramas of both shores of the Hudson as far down as Fishkill. Fine views can be had of the Catskills, and of the Shawangunks as far as Paltz Point. The most delightful view, however, is right in the foreground, being a portion of the town of Esopus, in which Hussey Hill is prominent. The view of the busy Rondout Creek, with its many steam and sailing vessels, including the West Shore bridge, is picturesque indeed. Ulster Academy is situated on this high and healthful location, and its situation is well adapted to cultivate in the minds of its pupils a love and taste for the sublime and beautiful in nature.

Minnewaskie Tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men, of this City, entertained members of the Minnewa Tribe, of Poughkeepsie, last evening. The Red Men from Poughkeepsie were met at the dock here by a delegation of Minnewaskie Tribe, accompanied by a drum corps. The visitors were escorted to the rooms of the order, on upper Union-avenue. District Deputy Merrion presented to Minnewaskie Lodge a chart, emblematic of the order. After pleasant exercises and greetings entertainers and guests partook of a banquet.

The recent finding of barrels containing kerosene, oiled rags, kindling wood, etc., in a house on Hasbrouck-avenue, has caused much comment. An investigation into the matter may be made by insurance men. It is said the barrels stood in the middle of a room and that there were five gallons of oil in each can. The insurance agent who called at the house, and later on told what he had seen to other local agents who had issued policies on the building, was informed of the suspicious state of affairs by a man who lives near the house.

The funeral of Past Commander W. H. Mills, of Newburgh, will leave that City at 9:30 to-morrow morning, accompanied by delegations from the Grand Army and Fire Department. Arriving at West Shore Depot Kingston, details from the Grand Army of the Republic, of this City, and of his old regiment, the One Hundred and Fifty-Sixth, will meet the escort and march to Montrepose Cemetery where the remains will be interred.

It is again pointed out that there are too many shade trees on many streets in this City. The lower limbs should be cut off, and, in instances, it would be well to remove every other tree and thin the branches out of others. Too much shade is worse than not enough, and while the trees keep away sunshine they also keep away the air, as will be found by walking under them at night, after being where there are no trees.

The most handsome and pure-blooded skye terrier in this City is the property of a Delaware & Hudson Canal boatman. One of its progenitors took the first prize at the recent Albany bench show. The playful little canine has a tuft of hair on top of its head which rises and falls like the "scare wig" of a negro minstrel.

Hammocks can now be seen suspended on piazzas and elsewhere around houses and barns here. Few houses are sufficiently large to allow a hammock to be swung properly within them. Even in a good-sized barn a hammock will at times be in the way.

The special articles in the Saturday evening issue of this journal will include information for prospective anglers in streams in the Catskill Mountains; the story of two remarkable dogs at Highland; a Rondout man's version of a faith cure episode, etc.

The mud that is being taken from the Rondout Creek, near the Sleightburgh flats, to deepen the water for a dock there for the Delaware & Hudson Company, is being used to fill up one of the Company's slips at the "Island Dock."

John Dearman arrested on a complaint made by his wife that he threatened to kill her and burn her buildings, and is now in jail in this City, will be taken before 'Squire France for a hearing on Saturday.

The members of the Fourteenth Separate Company have been ordered to report at the Armory on Thursday night, for full-dress drill. The Company will be headed by the Pythian Brass Band.

The service for young men to be held in the rooms of the Kingston Young Men's Christian Association at 3:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon will be led by Ira Markle.

Boys in a nude state bathed in the Rondout Creek to-day. They know there is an ordinance prohibiting them from so doing, and they also know it is not enforced.

May this year is as "leafy" a month as June. Trees and shrubbery never looked finer than they do to-day. Gardens present a pleasing picture to the eye.

The handsome flower garden in front of the Franciscan Brothers' residence, next to St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rondout, is admired by passers-by.

The members of the Mission Band of the Wurts-Street M. E. Church, will give a literary and musical entertainment in the lecture-room, this evening.

The remains of John F. Hickey, who died in Binghamton Insane Asylum, were brought to this City to-day and interred in St. Mary's Cemetery.

When the fire bells were rung, very early this morning, birds that frequent the Clinton-Avenue Ridge broke out into song.

There will be special term of the Supreme Court held at the Court House to-morrow.

Barnum's circus and menagerie will be exhibited in this City on May 24.

There will be a meeting of insurance men to-night at the Eagle Hotel.

Fair, warm weather promised for this vicinity on Saturday.

The Common Council will meet to-night.

Other vicinity news on page 3.

NO TEST OF STEAM ROLLERS TO-DAY.

Only One Machine on the Ground—A Test, Not an Exhibition, Desired.

The Committee appointed by the Common Council to witness a test of steam rollers, with a view of the City purchasing a machine if it gave satisfaction, did not have the opportunity to-day of witnessing a trial, as was expected. The agent of Averling & Company, whose roller has been here for three days, refused to place his machine on the road. He said that he was there to compete, not to exhibit, and there was no machine to compete with. He further said the machine was sold, and must be delivered to the purchaser. For that reason he could not keep it in this City and await the coming of the other roller.

PHASES OF THE LICENSE QUESTION

In this City and at Points Along the Hudson River.

The "talk" of restricting license in this City to comply with the law upon the subject is favorably commented upon by the press along the Hudson River.

An attempt was made to convict a Poughkeepsie man of selling liquor on Sunday, recently. "The evidence was insufficient."

There are 77 persons in the town of Fishkill who desire to continue selling rum and beer during the ensuing year.

The treasury of Pittsfield, Mass., a smaller place than this City, receives this year $22,300 from high license.

The Democratic Board of Excise at Coxsackie has reduced the price of licenses from $50 to $30.

FLAMES IN KINGSTON THIS MORNING.

Part of the Andrew Sutton House Burned—The Property Was Insured.

At about 3 o'clock this morning a fire occurred in a frame building, situated on the corner of Greenkill and Wilbur-avenues, Kingston, owned by Andrew Sutton. An alarm was given, the fire-bells were rung, the Western Fire Department turned out, and the flames were quickly extinguished. The building was a double house. The only occupant was Mrs. Sutton, wife of the owner. Yesterday she was moving from one house to the other. She had a portion of her furniture in each side of the building and was sleeping with her four children in what is known as the "big house." The fire broke out in the "little house," which was destroyed with its contents. The property was insured.

A SKELETON FOUND AT PORT-EWEN.

In the Skull is a Small Hole as Though Made by a Pistol Ball.

The people of Port-Ewen are talking about a skeleton that was unearthed there to-day. J. T. VanVliet, a workman on Kline's brickyard, while digging at the foot of a sand hill, was startled on seeing the skull of a human being roll down the embankment to his feet.

Search revealed the skeleton of a man buried about a foot beneath the surface. In the skull is a small hole, as if made by a pistol ball or dirk.

Many of the villagers believe that the man was murdered and buried in the sand bank.

THE PRESENT HIGH TEMPERATURE.

Ninety-Five in the Shade Here this Afternoon—One Case of Prostration.

At 9 o'clock this morning thermometers in Rondout recorded 91 in the shade. This afternoon it was 4 degrees warmer.

At about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, William B. Scott, Superintendent of the City Alms House, took to the Poor House a boatman named George Repsten, who was found on The Strand overcome by the heat. Repsten had so far recovered to-day that he returned to his boat.

At about 3:30 o'clock this afternoon rain began falling, which perceptibly cooled the atmosphere.

WHAT A BOATMAN SAID HERE TO-DAY.

Asserting that a Woman and Four Children Were Drowned Near Peekskill.

A boatman reported here to-day that on Wednesday night, in a fog, a propeller ran into a Northern Canal boat, which was in a Ronan or Schuyler's line tow, and that a woman and four children were drowned.

He said that the accident occurred in the Hudson River near Peekskill, and that the Northern boat was cut nearly in two and immediately sunk.

A RONDOUTER ROBBED UP NORTH.

Young Man Named Scott and the Statement He Made to Police at West-Troy.

This morning the police of West-Troy recovered a mule, a wagon, blankets and harness from a man named Scott, at Greenbush. Scott resides at Rondout, and it is alleged the property, with $100 in money, was stolen by two companions. A horse stolen from Scott has been located in Albany.

MORE NEW POSTMASTERS NAMED.

The New Appointees at Gardiner, Highland, Kerbonkson, Woodstock, Etc.

The following were, to-day, appointed fourth-class Postmasters: T. E. Barton, Gardiner; Edgar Elmendorf, Highland; Louis Flukiger, Kerhonkson; Alexander Longyear, Woodstock; William T. Elliott, Centreville; William D. Wanzer, Clintondale.

The Local Shipping News.

The whistle of the steamer "City of Kingston" was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek last night at 10 o'clock. The "Kingston" left New-York 25 minutes late. It had on board a heavy freight.

The owners of the W. W. Colt, which vessel is hard aground on the flats in front of Hudson, are waiting for a strong south wind and high tide to float it.

There arrived at tide-water, at Eddyville, yesterday, 38 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, laden with 4,940 tons of coal.

Runaway in Kingston.

This morning while William Martin was driving an express wagon, the horse ran away, and near Kingston Academy stumbled and fell. The wagon turned a summersault, if that term can be used, fell on the horse so the head of the animal was under the hind axle of the wagon. The shafts bent like whips, but were not broken. Little damage was done.

The Evangelical Alliance.

The annual meeting of the Evangelical Alliance will be held on Monday evening, May 13, in the Chapel of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church. Officers will be elected and other important business transacted. The Executive Committee will meet at 7 o'clock and the Alliance at 8.

What Soda Water Manufacturers May Do.

A meeting of soda water manufacturers of this City will be held to-night for the purpose of raising the price of "soft drinks." This movement, a manufacturer stated, this forenoon, is brought about by the advance in the price of sugar.

Entertainments in Rondout.

An entertainment for the benefit of Miss Lucie Pattison will be given in Washington Hall, May 22.

A comedy entitled a "Plug Hat" will be on the boards at Liscomb's Opera House on Tuesday evening.

Building a New Dock.

The dock that is being built for the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company along the edge of the Sleightburgh flats, will be 500 feet in length.

Personal.

Hon. Charles A. Fowler, of Kingston, is slowly improving.

RAILROADS IN 3 COUNTIES.

WORK BEING VIGOROUSLY PROSECUTED ON TWO NEW ROADS.

Bridge Being Built at Cooperstown Junction—The Extension Up Charlotte Valley—A Wreck on the Erie Early This Morning—New Time Tables.

New time tables will go into effect on the West Shore and Hudson River Railroads on Sunday.

A freight train, west-bound, on the Erie Railroad broke a coupling-pin four miles east of Port-Jervis at 4 o'clock this morning. It stopped to couple and was just about to start when another freight train dashed into it demolishing the caboose and several cars. The engine of the rear train was wrecked, and 13 cars, mostly empty, were piled on the tracks, obstructing travel for 4 hours. Engineer George Cowan and Conductor Levithorne were seriously hurt.

The correspondent of THE FREEMAN at Oneonta writes: "Work has been commenced on the bridge over the Albany & Susquehanna Road, at Cooperstown Junction. It is to be 110 feet span, the same style used by the Central Railroad. The price completed, ready for the ties, is $4,350. The work on the C. C. & V. Road extension is being pushed with vigor up the Charlotte Valley. The Company is making an effort to complete the road to Davenport Centre by July 1, and on July 4 to run an excursion from Cooperstown to that place. Surveyors are also at work between Oneonta and West Oneonta on the Oneida & Oneonta Road, to locate the junction of the road with the Delaware & Hudson.

A SCHOOL COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The Trouble in District No. 3 Apparently Ended—New School House Project.

A meeting of Trustees and tax-payers of School District No. 3, Rondout, was held last night in the school building for the purpose of hearing a report of a committee, consisting of Henry Kukoo, Christian Larsen, James Dalton, James Tongue, Sr., and Michael Larkin, appointed on August 18, 1888, to investigate the affairs of the District for the past 10 years.

Patrick Keane was Chairman of the meeting. The report of the Committe was read by Clerk Henry Powers. The report stated that the accounts of the school and all matters relating thereto had been found to be correct for the years of 1887 and 1888, but that the accounts for the years 1886, '85, '84, '83, '82, '81, '80, '79 and '78 were "considerably mixed," although the Committee did not charge that there had been any gross mismanagement on the part of the officials of of the District prior to 1887. The Committee made the following suggestions, which were discussed later on:

First—That the Trustees of the District keep better records.

Second—That the Trustees be authorized to furnish books, which books are to be properly kept.

Third—That the Clerk and Treasurer be required to keep their books and papers in such condition that the same can at any time be examined by any tax-payer of the District.

Fourth—That the tax-payers of the District be requested to look into the expenses of the present school system.

Fifth—Furthermore the Committee suggest that a site be purchased on which a new school house, which will compare favorably with any in the City, be built.

Trustee Flynn, after giving a brief history of the District, explained how Collectors used to perform their duties, and related that he had been a Trustee for about 35 years, during which time he had never discovered any wrong-doing. Sometimes the tax list would not be returned, the Collector erroneously presuming that the roll was his property. Mr. Flynn further said that he had received school moneys and had given the Collectors receipts therefor and had recorded the same in their pass books.

John Muldoon said that he did not believe the Investigating Committee had found anything irregular, and moved that the Committee be discharged and the matters of the District be begun anew under the head of "new business."

A motion was made and carried that the report of the Committee be received and adopted. A vote of thanks was also extended to the Committee.

In relation to the suggestion "that the Trustees keep better records," Christian Larsen said: "The money accounts of the District have not been kept in a proper manner. Hereafter I would like to see the accounts kept in such a shape that any person will be able to look over them at any time and understand them."

Trustee Flynn said that Mr. Larsen was laboring under a mistake as to how accounts were kept.

Henry Kukoo stated that the reason why Mr. Larsen had asserted that there was no head nor tail to the whole thing was because the records of the District for certain years had not been kept in a book of the District.

Trustee Ryan said that he did not see how the fourth suggestion of the Committee could be carried out unless a committee was appointed for that special purpose.

The matter of purchasing a site on which to build a new school house followed.

The Chairman stated that it was unnecessary to talk about such a project at this time, as it could not be acted upon until the next annual meeting. The Chairman's remarks did not end the discussion, however.

Mr. Larsen stated that he broached the subject so that it could be talked up by the tax-payers of the District, "We need a larger school. The present location is a miserable, unhealthy place. Let the present school be sold and a new and more commodious one be erected. This is the richest district in the City. We have banks and large corporations within its limits paying taxes, and we ought to have as good a school as any in the City."

Henry Kukoo said: "The present school building is not large enough. If the tax-payers consent to purchase a site in another locality and erect a building that will compare favorably with other schools in the City, it will benefit every person in the District."

Trustee Flynn said that it was only a waste of time to talk over the matter now.

The Clerk stated that the school was crowded last winter, it being necessary sometimes to place two scholars in one seat.

STORIES TOLD BY ANGLERS IN MAY.

A Cool Delhi Fisherman—Where Large Trout Have Been Hooked.

A Delhi lawyer, according to his usual custom at the opening of the trout season, wended his way to the region of the speckled beauties, near Andes. Proceeding along a stream, he found himself, without any injury to his hardened conscience, however, upon private grounds, and saw sign-boards reading: "No Fishing Allowed." While fishing he was approached by a sturdy farmer, who inquired if he was not acquainted with the law in regard to private parks. "I ought to know," replied the lawyer. "Well, what is it?" inquired the maddened farmer. The Delhi man proceeded to inform the old man, and also, without regard to the farmer's threats of arrest, etc., proceeded to fill his spacious basket. On his return to Delhi he sent a bill for a $10 counsel fee to the astonished tiller of the soil, who now says "lawyers can fish and be ——."

A party of six expert fishermen went to a Catskill Mountain stream yesterday. They carried with them the most approved and expensive paraphernalia for catching trout, and their friends expected that at least six basketful of fish would be caught. The experts fished all day faithfully. They tried bait and tempted the fish with flies and caught just one little trout. Two ragged urchins came on the stream as the Kingston men were leaving. The boys had poles made from saplings, hooks and lines that were of a primitive pattern. The youngsters caught a fine mess of trout.

Gilboa is ahead on trout stories. A fisherman there claims to have caught three that averaged three pounds each.

F. B. Mayham and J. H. Barlow caught 30 large pickerel in the Mayham Pond, near Hobart, the other day.

A trout weighing one and one-half pounds was caught on Tuesday by Alexander Golden, of Roxbury.

A trout 18 inches in length was caught in the Big Indian stream, one day recently.

IMPORTANT TO RAILROAD MEN.

A. E. Smith has been for forty-nine years road master on the Boston & Maine system and is now residing at Great Falls, N. H. He says trackmen, brakemen, firemen, engineers and conductors, as well as baggage masters and expressmen, are subject to kidney disease above all others. All, therefore, will be interested in the statement of his experience. "I have used Brown's Sarsaparilla for kidney and liver troubles, and can truly say it has done more for me than all the doctors I ever employed, and I have had occasion to require the services of the best physicians in the State. My wife also has been greatly benefited by its use.

A. E. SMITH,
Road Master B. & M. R. R."

The kidneys have been labored hard all winter, as the pores of the skin have been closed, but now the springtime has come, and they need some aid. May be you have that pain across the back; that tired feeling; those drawing down pains. If so, you can get immediate relief by following the example of Mr. Smith and his wife, and use that never-failing and grand corrector for the kidneys, liver and blood.

HOME NEWS PARAGRAPHED

BITS OF CHAT AND GOSSIP OVERHEARD HERE TO-DAY.

From the Hill Top in the Seventh Ward—The Pernicious Effect of Using Tobacco—Red Men Entertained Here—That Suspicious Case on Hasbrouck-Avenue.

The number of small boys who smoke on the streets here is increasing. It is a pernicious habit. Dr. Lyman, an expert, reports in the New-York Medical Journal some accurate investigations concerning the use of tobacco. "In an observation of 38 boys of all classes of society and of average health, who had been using tobacco for from two months to two years, 27 showed serious injury to the constitution and checked physical development. Thirty-two showed damage done to the heart's action, disordered digestion and a craving for alcohol. Thirteen had intermittency of the pulse and one had consumption. After the abandonment of tobacco within six months one-half were free from all the above symptoms, and the remainder were cured by the end of the year." The Maoris are given as an instance of the evil resulting from tobacco. This race was, when first discovered, the finest developed of any tribe on the Pacific. It is now decimated in numbers and degenerate in type. This is said to be owing to their inordinate fondness for tobacco."

Complaint is made by certain people living on high elevations in Rondout that the blowing of whistles of brickyards at East-Kingston and other near by localities at about 3 o'clock mornings is a nuisance. A resident of Chester-street said this forenoon: "The blowing of whistles on brickyards at so early an hour mornings should be abated. It is annoying to people who are ill and to people who have sensitive nerves. I spoke to a manufacturer not long ago about the nuisance, and he made the excuse for blowing the whistle so early that many of his workmen lived two miles away, and that they had to be awakened in that manner. I suggested to him that all the people in this City did not work on brickyards, but he replied that made no difference—it was a custom that had long been in vogue by brick-makers, and must be kept up."

Many homes on the hills in the Seventh Ward are charmingly situated From them are obtainable panoramas of both shores of the Hudson as far down as Fishkill. Fine views can be had of the Catskills, and of the Shawangunks as far as Paltz Point. The most delightful view, however, is right in the foreground, being a portion of the town of Esopus, in which Hussey Hill is prominent. The view of the busy Rondout Creek, with its many steam and sailing vessels, including the West Shore bridge, is picturesque indeed. Ulster Academy is situated on this high and healthful location, and its situation is well adapted to cultivate in the minds of its pupils a love and taste for the sublime and beautiful in nature.

Minnewaskie Tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men, of this City, entertained members of the Minnewa Tribe, of Poughkeepsie, last evening. The Red Men from Poughkeepsie were met at the dock here by a delegation of Minnewaskie Tribe, accompanied by a drum corps. The visitors were escorted to the rooms of the order, on upper Union-avenue. District Deputy Merrion presented to Minnewaskie Lodge a chart, emblematic of the order. After pleasant exercises and greetings entertainers and guests partook of a banquet.

The recent finding of barrels containing kerosene, oiled rags, kindling wood, etc., in a house on Hasbrouck-avenue, has caused much comment. An investigation into the matter may be made by insurance men. It is said the barrels stood in the middle of a room and that there were five gallons of oil in each can. The insurance agent who called at the house, and later on told what he had seen to other local agents who had issued policies on the building, was informed of the suspicious state of affairs by a man who lives near the house.

The funeral of Past Commander W. H. Mills, of Newburgh, will leave that City at 9:30 to-morrow morning, accompanied by delegations from the Grand Army and Fire Department. Arriving at West Shore Depot Kingston, details from the Grand Army of the Republic, of this City, and of his old regiment, the One Hundred and Fifty-Sixth, will meet the escort and march to Montrepose Cemetery where the remains will be interred.

It is again pointed out that there are too many shade trees on many streets in this City. The lower limbs should be cut off, and, in instances, it would be well to remove every other tree and thin the branches out of others. Too much shade is worse than not enough, and while the trees keep away sunshine they also keep away the air, as will be found by walking under them at night, after being where there are no trees.

The most handsome and pure-blooded skye terrier in this City is the property of a Delaware & Hudson Canal boatman. One of its progenitors took the first prize at the recent Albany bench show. The playful little canine has a tuft of hair on top of its head which rises and falls like the "scare wig" of a negro minstrel.

Hammocks can now be seen suspended on piazzas and elsewhere around houses and barns here. Few houses are sufficiently large to allow a hammock to be swung properly within them. Even in a good-sized barn a hammock will at times be in the way.

The special articles in the Saturday evening issue of this journal will include information for prospective anglers in streams in the Catskill Mountains; the story of two remarkable dogs at Highland; a Rondout man's version of a faith cure episode, etc.

The mud that is being taken from the Rondout Creek, near the Sleightburgh flats, to deepen the water for a dock there for the Delaware & Hudson Company, is being used to fill up one of the Company's slips at the "Island Dock."

John Dearman arrested on a complaint made by his wife that he threatened to kill her and burn her buildings, and is now in jail in this City, will be taken before 'Squire France for a hearing on Saturday.

The members of the Fourteenth Separate Company have been ordered to report at the Armory on Thursday night, for full-dress drill. The Company will be headed by the Pythian Brass Band.

The service for young men to be held in the rooms of the Kingston Young Men's Christian Association at 3:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon will be led by Ira Markle.

Boys in a nude state bathed in the Rondout Creek to-day. They know there is an ordinance prohibiting them from so doing, and they also know it is not enforced.

May this year is as "leafy" a month as June. Trees and shrubbery never looked finer than they do to-day. Gardens present a pleasing picture to the eye.

The handsome flower garden in front of the Franciscan Brothers' residence, next to St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rondout, is admired by passers-by.

The members of the Mission Band of the Wurts-Street M. E. Church, will give a literary and musical entertainment in the lecture-room, this evening.

The remains of John F. Hickey, who died in Binghamton Insane Asylum, were brought to this City to-day and interred in St. Mary's Cemetery.

When the fire bells were rung, very early this morning, birds that frequent the Clinton-Avenue Ridge broke out into song.

There will be special term of the Supreme Court held at the Court House to-morrow.

Barnum's circus and menagerie will be exhibited in this City on May 24.

There will be a meeting of insurance men to-night at the Eagle Hotel.

Fair, warm weather promised for this vicinity on Saturday.

The Common Council will meet to-night.

Other vicinity news on page 3.

NO TEST OF STEAM ROLLERS TO-DAY.

Only One Machine on the Ground—A Test, Not an Exhibition, Desired.

The Committee appointed by the Common Council to witness a test of steam rollers, with a view of the City purchasing a machine if it gave satisfaction, did not have the opportunity to-day of witnessing a trial, as was expected. The agent of Averling & Company, whose roller has been here for three days, refused to place his machine on the road. He said that he was there to compete, not to exhibit, and there was no machine to compete with. He further said the machine was sold, and must be delivered to the purchaser. For that reason he could not keep it in this City and await the coming of the other roller.

PHASES OF THE LICENSE QUESTION

In this City and at Points Along the Hudson River.

The "talk" of restricting license in this City to comply with the law upon the subject is favorably commented upon by the press along the Hudson River.

An attempt was made to convict a Poughkeepsie man of selling liquor on Sunday, recently. "The evidence was insufficient."

There are 77 persons in the town of Fishkill who desire to continue selling rum and beer during the ensuing year.

The treasury of Pittsfield, Mass., a smaller place than this City, receives this year $22,300 from high license.

The Democratic Board of Excise at Coxsackie has reduced the price of licenses from $50 to $30.

FLAMES IN KINGSTON THIS MORNING.

Part of the Andrew Sutton House Burned—The Property Was Insured.

At about 3 o'clock this morning a fire occurred in a frame building, situated on the corner of Greenkill and Wilbur-avenues, Kingston, owned by Andrew Sutton. An alarm was given, the fire-bells were rung, the Western Fire Department turned out, and the flames were quickly extinguished. The building was a double house. The only occupant was Mrs. Sutton, wife of the owner. Yesterday she was moving from one house to the other. She had a portion of her furniture in each side of the building and was sleeping with her four children in what is known as the "big house." The fire broke out in the "little house," which was destroyed with its contents. The property was insured.

A SKELETON FOUND AT PORT-EWEN.

In the Skull is a Small Hole as Though Made by a Pistol Ball.

The people of Port-Ewen are talking about a skeleton that was unearthed there today. J. T. VanVliet, a workman on Kline's brickyard, while digging at the foot of a sand hill, was startled on seeing the skull of a human being roll down the embankment to his feet.

Search revealed the skeleton of a man buried about a foot beneath the surface. In the skull is a small hole, as if made by a pistol ball or dirk.

Many of the villagers believe that the man was murdered and buried in the sand bank.

THE PRESENT HIGH TEMPERATURE.

Ninety-Five in the Shade Here this Afternoon—One Case of Prostration.

At 9 o'clock this morning thermometers in Rondout recorded 91 in the shade. This afternoon it was 4 degrees warmer.

At about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, William B. Scott, Superintendent of the City Alms House, took to the Poor House a boatman named George Repsten, who was found on The Strand overcome by the heat. Repsten had so far recovered to-day that he returned to his boat.

At about 3:30 o'clock this afternoon rain began falling, which perceptibly cooled the atmosphere.

WHAT A BOATMAN SAID HERE TO-DAY.

Asserting that a Woman and Four Children Were Drowned Near Peekskill.

A boatman reported here to-day that on Wednesday night, in a fog, a propeller ran into a Northern Canal boat, which was in a Ronan or Schuyler's line tow, and that a woman and four children were drowned.

He said that the accident occurred in the Hudson River near Peekskill, and that the Northern boat was cut nearly in two and immediately sunk.

A RONDOUTER ROBBED UP NORTH.

Young Man Named Scott and the Statement He Made to Police at West-Troy.

This morning the police of West-Troy recovered a mule, a wagon, blankets and harness from a man named Scott, at Greenbush. Scott resides at Rondout, and it is alleged the property, with $100 in money, was stolen by two companions. A horse stolen from Scott has been located in Albany.

MORE NEW POSTMASTERS NAMED.

The New Appointees at Gardiner, Highland, Kerbonkson, Woodstock, Etc.

The following were, to-day, appointed fourth-class Postmasters: T. E. Barton, Gardiner; Edgar Elmendorf, Highland; Louis Flukiger, Kerhonkson; Alexander Longyear, Woodstock; William T. Elliott, Centreville; William D. Wanzer, Clintondale.

The Local Shipping News.

The whistle of the steamer "City of Kingston" was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek last night at 10 o'clock. The "Kingston" left New-York 25 minutes late. It had on board a heavy freight.

The owners of the W. W. Colt, which vessel is hard aground on the flats in front of Hudson, are waiting for a strong south wind and high tide to float it.

There arrived at tide-water, at Eddyville, yesterday, 38 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, laden with 4,940 tons of coal.

Runaway in Kingston.

This morning while William Martin was driving an express wagon, the horse ran away, and near Kingston Academy stumbled and fell. The wagon turned a summersault, if that term can be used, fell on the horse so the head of the animal was under the hind axle of the wagon. The shafts bent like whips, but were not broken. Little damage was done.

The Evangelical Alliance.

The annual meeting of the Evangelical Alliance will be held on Monday evening, May 13, in the Chapel of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church. Officers will be elected and other important business transacted. The Executive Committee will meet at 7 o'clock and the Alliance at 8.

What Soda Water Manufacturers May Do.

A meeting of soda water manufacturers of this City will be held to-night for the purpose of raising the price of "soft drinks." This movement, a manufacturer stated, this forenoon, is brought about by the advance in the price of sugar.

Entertainments in Rondout.

An entertainment for the benefit of Miss Lucie Pattison will be given in Washington Hall, May 22.

A comedy entitled a "Plug Hat" will be on the boards at Liscomb's Opera House on Tuesday evening.

Building a New Dock.

The dock that is being built for the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company along the edge of the Sleightburgh flats, will be 500 feet in length.

Personal.

Hon. Charles A. Fowler, of Kingston, is slowly improving.

RAILROADS IN 3 COUNTIES.

WORK BEING VIGOROUSLY PROSECUTED ON TWO NEW ROADS.

Bridge Being Built at Cooperstown Junction—The Extension Up Charlotte Valley—A Wreck on the Erie Early This Morning—New Time Tables.

New time tables will go into effect on the West Shore and Hudson River Railroads on Sunday.

A freight train, west-bound, on the Erie Railroad broke a coupling-pin four miles east of Port-Jervis at 4 o'clock this morning. It stopped to couple and was just about to start when another freight train dashed into it demolishing the caboose and several cars. The engine of the rear train was wrecked, and 13 cars, mostly empty, were piled on the tracks, obstructing travel for 4 hours. Engineer George Cowan and Conductor Levithorne were seriously hurt.

The correspondent of THE FREEMAN at Oneonta writes: "Work has been commenced on the bridge over the Albany & Susquehanna Road, at Cooperstown Junction. It is to be 110 feet span, the same style used by the Central Railroad. The price completed, ready for the ties, is $4,350. The work on the C. C. & V. Road extension is being pushed with vigor up the Charlotte Valley. The Company is making an effort to complete the road to Davenport Centre by July 1, and on July 4 to run an excursion from Cooperstown to that place. Surveyors are also at work between Oneonta and West Oneonta on the Oneida & Oneonta Road, to locate the junction of the road with the Delaware & Hudson.

A SCHOOL COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The Trouble in District No. 3 Apparently Ended—New School House Project.

A meeting of Trustees and tax-payers of School District No. 3, Rondout, was held last night in the school building for the purpose of hearing a report of a committee, consisting of Henry Kukoo, Christian Larsen, James Dalton, James Tongue, Sr., and Michael Larkin, appointed on August 18, 1888, to investigate the affairs of the District for the past 10 years.

Patrick Keane was Chairman of the meeting. The report of the Committe was read by Clerk Henry Powers. The report stated that the accounts of the school and all matters relating thereto had been found to be correct for the years of 1887 and 1888, but that the accounts for the years 1886, '85, '84, '83, '82, '81, '80, '79 and '78 were "considerably mixed," although the Committee did not charge that there had been any gross mismanagement on the part of the officials of the District prior to 1887. The Committee made the following suggestions, which were discussed later on:

First—That the Trustees of the District keep better records.

Second—That the Trustees be authorized to furnish books, which books are to be properly kept.

Third—That the Clerk and Treasurer be required to keep their books and papers in such condition that the same can at any time be examined by any tax-payer of the District.

Fourth—That the tax-payers of the District be requested to look into the expenses of the present school system.

Fifth—Furthermore the Committee suggest that a site be purchased on which a new school house, which will compare favorably with any in the City, be built.

Trustee Flynn, after giving a brief history of the District, explained how Collectors used to perform their duties, and related that he had been a Trustee for about 35 years, during which time he had never discovered any wrong-doing. Sometimes the tax list would not be returned, the Collector erroneously presuming that the roll was his property. Mr. Flynn further said that he had received school moneys and had given the Collectors receipts therefor and had recorded the same in their pass books.

John Muldoon said that he did not believe the Investigating Committee had found anything irregular, and moved that the Committee be discharged and the matters of the District be begun anew under the head of "new business."

A motion was made and carried that the report of the Committee be received and adopted. A vote of thanks was also extended to the Committee.

In relation to the suggestion "that the Trustees keep better records," Christian Larsen said: "The money accounts of the District have not been kept in a proper manner. Hereafter I would like to see the accounts kept in such a shape that any person will be able to look over them at any time and understand them."

Trustee Flynn said that Mr. Larsen was laboring under a mistake as to how accounts were kept.

Henry Kukoo stated that the reason why Mr. Larsen had asserted that there was no head nor tail to the whole thing was because the records of the District for certain years had not been kept in a book of the District.

Trustee Ryan said that he did not see how the fourth suggestion of the Committee could be carried out unless a committee was appointed for that special purpose.

The matter of purchasing a site on which to build a new school house followed.

The Chairman stated that it was unnecessary to talk about such a project at this time, as it could not be acted upon until the next annual meeting. The Chairman's remarks did not end the discussion, however.

Mr. Larsen stated that he broached the subject so that it could be talked up by the tax-payers of the District, "We need a larger school. The present location is a miserable, unhealthy place. Let the present school be sold and a new and more commodious one be erected. This is the richest district in the City. We have banks and large corporations within its limits paying taxes, and we ought to have as good a school as any in the City."

Henry Kukoo said: "The present school building is not large enough. If the tax-payers consent to purchase a site in another locality and erect a building that will compare favorably with other schools in the City, it will benefit every person in the District."

Trustee Flynn said that it was only a waste of time to talk over the matter now.

The Clerk stated that the school was crowded last winter, it being necessary sometimes to place two scholars in one seat.

STORIES TOLD BY ANGLERS IN MAY.

A Cool Delhi Fisherman—Where Large Trout Have Been Hooked.

A Delhi lawyer, according to his usual custom at the opening of the trout season, wended his way to the region of the speckled beauties, near Andes. Proceeding along a stream, he found himself, without any injury to his hardened conscience, however, upon private grounds, and saw sign-boards reading: "No Fishing Allowed." While fishing he was approached by a sturdy farmer, who inquired if he was not acquainted with the law in regard to private parks. "I ought to know," replied the lawyer. "Well, what is it?" inquired the maddened farmer. The Delhi man proceeded to inform the old man, and also, without regard to the farmer's threats of arrest, etc., proceeded to fill his spacious basket. On his return to Delhi he sent a bill for a $10 counsel fee to the astonished tiller of the soil, who now says "lawyers can fish and be ——."

A party of six expert fishermen went to a Catskill Mountain stream yesterday. They carried with them the most approved and expensive paraphernalia for catching trout, and their friends expected that at least six basketful of fish would be caught. The experts fished all day faithfully. They tried bait and tempted the fish with flies and caught just one little trout. Two ragged urchins came on the stream as the Kingston men were leaving. The boys had poles made from saplings, hooks and lines that were of a primitive pattern. The youngsters caught a fine mess of trout.

Gilboa is ahead on trout stories. A fisherman there claims to have caught three that averaged three pounds each.

F. B. Mayham and J. H. Barlow caught 30 large pickerel in the Mayham Pond, near Hobart, the other day.

A trout weighing one and one-half pounds was caught on Tuesday by Alexander Golden, of Roxbury.

A trout 18 inches in length was caught in the Big Indian stream, one day recently.

In Fire Insurance they offer five out of nine of the largest companies in the country "as to surplus to policy holders," a record which it is believed cannot be equalled by any City Agency. In addition they offer other companies whose assets run into the millions. The commissions are open to examination on the walls of their office. Twenty years of fire underwriting in this County are the best guarantees to which they can refer. Policies will be forwarded to order, if approved, by mail, telegraph or telephone.

IMPORTANT TO RAILROAD MEN.

A. E. Smith has been for forty-nine years road master on the Boston & Maine system and is now residing at Great Falls, N. H. He says trackmen, brakemen, firemen, engineers and conductors, as well as baggage masters and expressmen, are subject to kidney disease above all others. All, therefore, will be interested in the statement of his experience. "I have used Brown's Sarsaparilla for kidney and liver troubles, and can truly say it has done more for me than all the doctors I ever employed, and I have had occasion to require the services of the best physicians in the State. My wife also has been greatly benefited by its use.

A. E. SMITH,
Road Master B. & M. R. R."

The kidneys have been labored hard all winter, as the pores of the skin have been closed, but now the springtime has come, and they need some aid. May be you have that pain across the back; that tired feeling; those drawing down pains. If so, you can get immediate relief by following the example of Mr. Smith and his wife, and use that never-failing and grand corrector for the kidneys, liver and blood.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

COLONEL FREDERICK D. GRANT reached Vienna yesterday, to enter upon the office of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Austria.

CORPORAL TANNER will recommend to Congress that ex-soldiers in receipt of pensions of $3.76 per month be raised to $4, and that the rate of $72 per month for total disability be changed to $100.

PRESIDENT CARNOT of France has sent assistance to the family of Perrau, the lunatic who tried to assassinate him with a blank cartridge, and Madame Carnot pleads for his release from prison. Perrau was a good soldier before he became insane.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND tons of American steel rails were sold the other day for $24.70 per ton. English rails were paid for in this country before the tariff was put on at the rate of $166 a ton. But the tariff is a tax nevertheless. It taxed the British extortionists out of the country.

PEOPLE are burying their bodies in the mud of swamps and lying flat upon their faces in Northern Michigan, while the forest fires rage above and around them. Many of them are believed to have perished. The locomotive is blazing the way of the settler whom it has carried to his new home.

THE Democratic Excise Board of New York proposes to cut down the price of saloon licenses from $350 to $250. A great influx of cheap saloon keepers who have been frozen out of Philadelphia and Boston is expected, and the reduction, it is believed, will add 10,000 votes to the party of David B. Hill.

SIXTEEN contested election cases for the fifty-first Congress to decide are already on file, and several more are coming. Not more than two of them are from Democrats who wish to unseat Republicans. If the House does its entire duty in these cases, fraud and bulldozing at the South will lose their popularity.

DANIEL V. HOUSER, an Indiana soldier, has been awarded the pension that Gen. Black denied him. His injury was caused by a fall upon the ice, the result of a push from a fellow soldier. He was in the service of the United States at the time, and hence, according to Republican interpretation, "in the line of duty."

THE steamship City of Paris, the fastest that ever crossed the Atlantic, will leave New York on her return trip next Wednesday afternoon. The Brittanic, Westernland and Aller will sail the same day, and lively racing is predicted. Tourists who wish to cross to Europe in great haste and without regard to danger can get passage on either of these "greyhounds of the Atlantic."

THE English House of Lords again defeated the deceased wife's sister's bill yesterday, and the man who wants to marry his sister-in-law will have to bring her over to the United States as has been done before. The opponents of the measure are chiefly the Lord Bishops, who realize that the Church of England would crumble to its foundations if left without this single remaining peg to stand upon.

THE Albany Express states that since 1870 the population of Albany has risen from 70,000 to 103,000, a gain of less than 50 per cent, while the municipal salary list has grown during the same time from $25,400 to $81,400, or over 220 per cent. It would be superfluous to state, after reciting these figures, that the municipal government of Albany has been steadily and unbrokenly Democratic during the entire period.

THE FREEMAN was misinformed a few days ago, it seems, in regard to Public Printer Benedict's conduct. He did not tender his resignation as stated, but had to be removed. Instead of resigning, he had been heard to declare repeatedly that if the President wanted the place he could ask for it. On Wednesday Mr. Palmer's appointment was made out and Benedict notified of the fact, but as he did not yet tender his resignation the President informed him in a brief note that he was summarily removed. Mr. Palmer is in charge to-day, and Benedict has the President's letter to prove that he is a martyr.

THE ceiling investigation committee of the Assembly reports that John Snaith, Timothy J. Sullivan and Charles B. Andrews entered into a conspiracy to rob the state by procuring the contract at an exorbitant rate, and then doing the work poorly. It recommends the removal of Andrews, the indictment of the conspirators by the grand jury, and their prosecution by the Attorney General for the recovery of the stolen money. The prosecution should be begun at once, or else there will be more stealing. It is unwise to wait till rascality becomes a good deal more transparent than it was in the days of Tweed.

FATHER DAMIEN, the Catholic priest who in 1873 enlisted as a missionary on the leper island of Molokai of the Hawaiian group, is dead. The lepers to whom he went to minister were the most abandoned, degraded and vicious people on the earth, but he labored successfully to convert them to Christianity. Five years ago he became aware that the awful disease had seized upon him, but he never faltered. He remained among his chosen people, and set a Christian example of dying, resignedly and in full confidence of a blissful immortality, the death to which they are all doomed. Such heroism and self-sacrifice as this carries one back to the days of the Apostles.

MICHAEL J. BOURKE, Collector of Special Taxes in the twenty-sixth ward of Brooklyn, formerly the town of New Lots, confesses that he has collected $40,000 and paid over only $15,000. The rest of the money he has spent in political assessments for the Democratic party, in a dry-goods enterprise and in unfortunate land speculations. His salary is $3,000 a year, but this has not been sufficient to support his family and satisfy his creditors. Bourke has three years to serve, and thinks that if let alone he will be able to make up the full amount of his defalcation. In other words, he is anxious to become a civil service reformer of himself. But Sing Sing is gaping for him.

THE RAPID TRANSIT BILL.

The Governor Sends a Message to The Legislature.

FAST TIME ON THE LAKES.

From Buffalo to Chicago in Fifty-Four Hours.

SOLDIERS' ORPHAN SCHOOL.

Members of a G. A. R. Post and Their Opinions.

THE WORLD IN MINIATURE

IN THE STATE LEGISLATURE TO-DAY.

What was Said in Reference to Anti-Bucket Shop Bill in Senate.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 10.—In the Assembly to-day Ainsworth introduced a bill for the election of School Directors in the several towns of the State. He said the bill was intended to return to the township system of school management throughout the State, and that no effort would be made to pass the bill this session, but at his request the bill was ordered to a third reading, ordered printed and referred to the Committee on Public Education.

The Governor sent a message to the Assembly saying the necessity of providing some relief for New-York City in the matter of rapid transit was the pressing question of the hour. "Every citizen of that City understands and appreciates the situation and is looking to the Legislature for prompt and wise action. It is the greatest city upon the continent but its prosperity, progress and development are hampered and restricted by insufficient and inadequate means of travel." The Governor says the bill known as the "Mayor's Rapid Transit" bill is reasonably free from objections and it is believed it will accomplish the purpose desired. "It is admitted to be an honest measure. It has no entangling alliances with any private or corporate schemes, but has been framed absolutely in the public interest and is supported by all the reputable newspapers in New-York City, and favored by nearly every representative in the Legislature from that City. There seems to be no good reason why it should not be enacted. The Governor says a suspicion is abroad that this measure cannot be passed unless some concession of a political character shall accompany it, and the delays interposed to its progress and the circumstances surrounding its opposition have seemed to justify this suspicion. It is practically certain that if the Mayor's bill does not pass there will be no relief afforded this year. It is to be hoped that the bill will not be defeated by inaction or indirection. It should be clearly understood that the measure upon which I am urging action does not compel the adoption or designate, or even indicate any particular system or plan or device to secure rapid transit for New-York City's great and increasing population. It simply confers upon the authorities of that City power to select some method which will give needed relief to the hundreds of thousands of those who are daily compelled to travel between their homes and their work-shops or offices."

IN STATE SENATE.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 10.—In the Senate to-day Fassett submitted a petition containing some 20,000 names in favor of declaring cider an intoxicating drink. Referred to the Committee on Internal Affairs.

Sloan, from the Finance Committee, reported favorably Mase's three-headed Lunacy Commission bill, amended so as to provide that the present Commissioner [Dr. Smith] shall be kept in office as the Fourth Commissioner until his term expires. The bill as amended was passed.

Husted's bill appropriating $25,000 for the State camp mess hall was received from the Assembly and ordered to a third reading.

Bills passed: Longley's, relative to the increase of capital stock of railroad corporations. The Ways and Means Committee bill relative to the payment of awards made by the Board of Claims.

When Rhodes' anti-bucket shop bill came up Grady opposed it saying it was an attempt to allow the big fishes to eat up the little. There should be no distinction between one dealer in stocks and bonds and another. He moved the bill be recommitted to the Judiciary Committee.

Robertson hoped the motion would not prevail. There was no other business which did more injury than the bucket shop.

Grady said the bill abolished "puts" and "calls."

Sloan didn't know but that was advisable. If that was all the bill did he would vote for it.

Grady said if the issuing of "puts" and "calls" was what was meant by bucket-shops then Daniel Drew was a bucket-shop-keeper. If bucket-shops were wiped out the Stock Exchanges should receive the same treatment.

BILLS SIGNED BY GOVERNOR.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, May 10.—The Governer has signed the following:

Chapter 278, appropriating $1,800 for the erection of a mole and adjuncts thereto from the dyke to the mainland in front of the premises of Edward McCabe, on Houghtaling's Island in the Hudson River.

Chapter 279, further providing means for the erection and completion of a Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument in Brooklyn.

Chapter 280, amending Brooklyn's consolidated laws relative to the Department of Police.

"United Brethren" Conference.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 10.—The world's quadrennial conference of the United Brethren Church is in session here. The conference is the highest legislative body of the church, and consists of ministers chosen by the vote of the members of the denomination. Each annual conference is entitled to not less than two and not more than four representatives, according to the number of its members. The principal work of this conference will be to examine the administration of each of the annual conferences and establish their boundaries; to prescribe the Episcopal districts and to assign to each one a bishop; to modify the provisions of the church discipline; to provide for the management of the different institutions of the church and to elect the general officers.

The Chester Soldiers' Orphans' School.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., May 10.—The Chester Springs Soldiers' Orphans' School matter continues to be the subject of much comment in this County. The members of McCall Post, No. 31, G. A. R., are not feeling in a very pleasant mood towards State Superintendent Higbee, because of the indifference he has shown in behalf of the suffering orphans that are pupils in that institution.

Proceedings were Uninteresting.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, May 10.—The proceedings before the Parnell Commission to-day were uninteresting. Public interest in the trial has waned since the examination of Parnell was concluded.

FAST TIME BY STEAMER CHEMUNG.

It Sailed From Buffalo to Chicago in Fifty-Four Hours.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The big steamship Chemung came down the Lake front, early this morning, with the speed of a railroad train. It was on the home stretch of the greatest long-distance run ever made on fresh water. On the last trip up, the Owego, the twin boat of the Chemung, made the remarkable time of 58 hours from Buffalo. Between the two boats, although they belong to the same line, the sharpest rivalry exists. The Chemung left Buffalo at 7:30 P. M., Tuesday, reaching Detroit in 13 hours and Port Huron in 19. The long run up Lake Huron was made in 14 hours and 10 minutes. Then the nose of the big boat was put for Chicago harbor, and it came up Lake Michigan as fast as its powerful machinery could bring it, arriving here at 2:30 this morning. Its time was 20 hours and 30 minutes from the Straits and 54 hours from Buffalo, counting the difference of an hour in time.

Marsh, Not Natural Gas.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—The digging of the well at Spreckels' sugar refinery, which it was believed contained a natural gas spring, is being proceeded with vigorously at the foot of Reed-street on the Delaware River. It was thought yesterday that the flow will not prove what was expected of it. The impression prevails that the gas is of the kind which is always forced out of swampy ground when a heavy pressure is placed upon it, and it is supposed that the immense weight of the foundations for the new refineries has had something to do with it. The ground was formerly very swampy, but was recently filled in. Mr. Spreckels does not believe that natural gas has been discovered. If the gas is good for anything the well will be developed to its fullest capacity.

Philadelphia's License Court.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—After being in session for 44 days the License Court yesterday completed its work, and although it has not finally adjourned, it is understood that no further public business will be transacted. Yesterday's session was a brief one and but sparsely attended. All four Judges were present, and no applicant this year will be justified in complaining of not being given a fair hearing, as the Court was kept in session over an hour after the actual business of the day was completed in order to allow tardy applicants to argue their claims. None of them appeared, however.

A Contractor Missing.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—One of Lock Haven's old residents, Patrick Prendible, is missing, and when last heard from he was in this city, and had just received from the sale of some bonds between $700 and $800. He came here on April 15 and called on Broker W. G. Huey to negotiate the sale of securities. Mr. Prendible was a prominent railroad contractor, and constructed the low-grade division of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad, receiving in payment bonds of the road.

Strikers Encounter Military.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BERLIN, May 10.—There was an encounter near Brockel, Westphala, to-day, between the troops and strikers. A large body of the latter had gathered and were becoming disorderly, when they were ordered to disperse by the officer commanding the military. The strikers refused. After warning them of the consequences and no attention being paid to the warning, the officer ordered the soldiers to fire. Three of the miners were killed and several wounded.

Effects of a European Coal Strike.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BERLIN, May 10.—Many iron works have been obliged to extinguish the fires in their furnaces in consequence of the strike. The number of strikers has reached 70,000. At a meeting of 5,000 strikers in Bochum yesterday, it was resolved to insist upon their demands. The Krupp Works have arranged to obtain coal from Upper Silesia and England and will resume the making of rails.

The Great Salt Lake Race.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

DENVER, May 10.—Oarsmen O'Connor, Lee, Gaudaur, Hamm and Petersen will row on the Great Salt Lake, on the second of June, a single scull race, three miles with turn, for a $1,500 purse, to be divided as follows: $800 to the winner, $400 to the second, $200 to the third and $100 to the fourth. A San Francisco man offers a $250 purse to the man who breaks the world's record.

Killed at a Grade Crossing.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—Patrol wagon No. 8, attached to the Twenty-Second Police District, was struck by a train at Thirteenth and Cumberland-streets, last night, and three officers were injured and a horse killed.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Leading Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, May 10.—The opening of the stock market this morning was extremely dull and at prices practically unchanged from those of last evening. Atchison and Oregon Transcontinental were still leaders in activity, but St. Paul was quiet, its place being taken by Union Pacific. The market displayed a heavy to weak tone, but outside of Atchison the fluctuations were insignificant, though Rock Island after opening up ½ retired ⅝ and Oregon Transcontinental continued strong, rising a fraction. The changes in the Atchison directory did not inspire the confidence expected and a lively selling movement began in the stock at the opening, its price being forced off from 43½ to 41¼. Support was met at the latter figure and after a slight rally the stock became dull with the remainder of the list. At 11 o'clock the market was very dull, but steady.

TWO WALKING MATCHES.

DAMAGING WIND AND RAIN STORM.

Fruit and Flowers Destroyed and Corn Washed Out of the Ground.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BELVIDERE, O., May 10.—A most terrific hail, wind and rain storm visited this City and vicinity yesterday afternoon. Hail stones as large as walnuts fell for 30 minutes. The fruit trees were in full bloom and much damage resulted to cherries and late apples. Corn planting was about completed, but much will probably have to be replanted, the seed having been literally washed out of the ground. The florists will be the worst sufferers, hundreds of panes of glass being broken and the plants being cut to pieces. Stock which was out in the open fields and unable to get under shelter suffered severely.

Bald Knobbers Hanged.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, May 10.—The Bald Knobbers were executed at Ozark, to-day. The drop fell at 9:53 A. M. The ropes broke and the three men fell to the ground struggling. The execution was a horribly bungled butchery. The men were carried to the scaffold again at 10:10. William Walker struggled, groaned and was almost insensible. David Walker died in 15, John Matthews in 13 and William Walker in 13 minutes.

The three Bald Knobbers, David Walker, better known in Christian County as "Bull Creek Dave," Chief of the Bald Knobbers, his son, William Walker, and John Matthews were hanged for the murder of Charles Green and William Edens on March 11, 1887. They were firmly of the opinion up to within 48 hours of the execution that they would never be called upon to pay the extreme penalty.

Held for a Requisition.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—United States Commissioner Craig to-day gave a further hearing to Rosanna Russa, alias "Teresina Bolsoma," a young Italian woman, living in Vineland, N. J., who was arrested on Monday, charged with obtaining money from the New-York Post Office by forgery, and held her in $1,500 bail to await requisition papers from New-York. Eight money orders, amounting to $400, had been sent to Adele Tango by relatives in Italy. Mrs. Tango left for her native country before their arrival, and her husband, learning that the money orders had come, induced the woman Russa to personate his wife. He is now in jail in Italy for forgery.

Coal Men Disturbed.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—Trouble in the coal trade is threatened as a result of the New-York, Ontario & Western Railroad's entrance into the northern anthracite field. The new comer has contraced to carry coal at 40 per cent. of the market price, much less than present charges. It is said the old companies will fight the new tolls as unlawful.

A COMMON SENSE LETTER.

To the Editor:—I see that newspaper articles are again making their appearance calling attention to matters pertaining to health as well as to the means whereby disease may be removed and good health preserved. I am thereby reminded that I have received from time to time, pamphlet publications issued by the well known firm of H. H. Warner's & Co., which dwell upon the history and growth of kidney diseases; showing how such is the cause of consumption, heart, brain and nervous disorders, which can only be successfully treated by removing the primary disease from the kidneys. At the same time care is taken to remind the reader that Warner's Safe Cure is the only means whereby the physician or the individual can successfully prevent and cure this class of disease.

Whilst I have personal cause to feel grateful to Warner's Safe Cure, for the benefit which I derived from it when suffering from kidney troubles last spring, I cannot see, since that remedy is already so well known in every household, why the parties interested in its manufacture should continue to expend money in calling attention to what the public already knows so well. I am aware, Mr. Editor, that the members of the medical profession are seldom disposed to give due credit to proprietary medicines, but public confidence is likely to be even more shaken in those learned gentlemen since the startling disclosures in the Robinson poisoning cases were made in Somerville, Mass.

Here it was discoved, through the efforts of an insurance company, that eight cases of death from arsenical poisoning had occurred—seven of them in one family, and within five years, and the other that of a relative—wherein the true cause of death had not been even suspected by prominent physicians who were in attendance, but who treated the case for other causes, and finally, when death occurred, issued certificates for such causes as pneumonia, typhoid fever, meningitis, etc.

After such an evidence of the utter incompetency of those physicians who were regarded as experts in their profession, I cannot conceive why it will be longer necessary for further advertising to be done in behalf of Warner's Safe Cure, since I deem the Somerville disclosure to be the best possible endorsement of the good sense manifested by those who take matters of health in their own hands and use a remedy which experience has shown to be fully adapted for the purposes intended, instead of trusting themselves in experimental hands.

I BELIEVE IT YET.

I.

There's some useful information that I got
 from mother dear,
One evening when I went my girl to see;
She told me I had better be tasteful in my
 dress,
If from bitter disappointment I'd be free.
She told that Marks Jacobs made suits the
 handsomest;
That to his store was just the place to go,
That with his help I'd surely win the girl I
 loved best:
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me that a manly man should dress
 in manly style,
And always like a gentleman should go;
That for this service I could trust Marks
 Jacobs all the while;
I believed it, for my mother told me so.

II.

And so I went to Jacobs' store, 184 The Strand,
The next morning at the rising of the sun,
And picked me out the finest that this artist
 had on hand,
And in just two days the suit complete
 was done.
Then I hied me to the mansion where lived
 my Katie Brown,
And her greeting was the sweetest man
 can know;
She said I was the handsomest, the noblest
 man in town;
I believed it, for my sweetheart told me so.

CHORUS.

She told me something better yet; she said
 she would be mine,
That through this life with me she'd gladly go,
If I would wear Marks Jacobs' suits, so fitting,
 neat and fine;
I believed it, for my Katie told me so.

THE GOVERNOR INSULTED

Gov. Hill was actually burned in effigy at Binghamton last Tuesday night. Democrats supplied the hat and trousers with which the image was clothed, Democrats made the condemnatory speeches, and a Democratic orator applied the match. The offense that angered them was the veto of the bill to extend the limits of the city. It had been prepared with general approval, was satisfactory to all the people of the city, and there were no politics in it. But the Governor fancied that the enlargement would take in a few more Republicans than Democrats, and make the work of carrying the city by his party a little harder and more uncertain. The men who celebrated the veto with an indignation meeting, an effigy and a match, were those who expected to be taken into the city but were left out. The reason advanced by the Governor to cover his real objections was that annexation would make the tenth ward too large. Here is the speech of E. J. Barnes, one of the disappointed:

I have been active in this matter of annexation I have always been a Democrat and more than an ordinary Democrat. I have always supported Hill. There was no part of this bill that could be construed as special legislation. I had a hand in framing the bill and I looked out for that. The bill was vetoed simply because some political vagabonds in this town (applause) henchmen of David B. Hill, ordered it vetoed. Hill never lived here and never will. His henchmen do not live here. But still be vetoes the bill because it would make the Tenth ward too large. I have always been a Democrat, but now as far as politics are concerned I am all turned about and I don't know where I am. I could not have been more astonished by an earthquake than I was by this veto. But talk amounts to nothing. We're left. We can't pass the bill over his veto, and we might as well clean our country door yards, look as respectable as possible and do the best we can. We are left without lights, without police or fire protection, and without school facilities, and we owe it all to David B. Hill.

We quote some other speeches. H. S. Chase closed his remarks thus:

If ever there was cause for indignation, it is when the Governor of a great state insults the sovereign people of that state and makes therefor the excuse of a pothouse politician. I have been a Democrat all my life. I can't change my convictions in a single night; but if the interests of a common people, irrespective of party, are to be trampled on by the Democracy of this state, I can't support such Democracy.

Mr. Kinney was the man who applied the match. Here is his preliminary speech:

Friends—I am asked to say a few preliminary words. We are here holding an indignation meeting in order to show to Governor Hill and his henchmen how the North End feels about his veto of the city extension bill. We were united, irrespective of politics, in our desire to be incorporated in the city of Binghamton. We worked hard, raised the necessary money and framed the bill. It was endorsed by the City Council and passed by the Legislature. Without any just cause he has vetoed this bill, and so, friends and neighbors, we have hanged the Executive of this state and we are going to burn him.

No other Governor of this state was ever burned in effigy. There have been unpopular and hated Governors before Hill, but respect for the great office has restrained the offended people from putting this lasting brand of shame upon them. We do not see anything to approve in this Binghamton performance. It was the act of persons whose indignation over an inexcusable injustice carried them beyond the bounds of reason. Insult could be carried no further than when they made an image of Hill, labeled it "Old Peanuts," hung it up by the neck, and then roasted it.

Gov. Hill has made his entire reputation for political sagacity and smartness upon his vetoes of beneficial legislation. There is in it a kind of audacity that in its first effect commands the admiration of certain people, who are disposed to applaud it as heroism. Gov. Hill has been flattered for this sort of performance till his head is turned, and he is in serious danger of overdoing the thing, or in slang phrase of "running it into the ground" and himself along with it. The effigy business will be remembered by the people of Binghamton as long as Mr. Hill remains in public life.

WHERE IS THE SURPLUS NOW?

Though dead to political life, the late Secretary Fairchild is not likely to be forgotten. Whether he deceived Mr. Cleveland on the subject of a Treasury surplus in his annual report for 1887, or whether President and Secretary entered into a combination to deceive the people, is not of much consequence now. He certainly put into the hands of the President a free trade argument in that report, and the argument wrecked his party.

Mr. Fairchild estimated the government receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1889, at $383,000,000 and the expenditures, including the sinking fund, at $326,530,793. This would create a surplus of $56,469,206, not including the sinking fund, though Mr. Fairchild falsely counted that fund as surplus, in order to make a bigger showing for free trade. This enabled him to report an estimated surplus, on paper, of $104,313,365.

We are now within two months of the end of the fiscal year for which these estimates were made. The receipts for the ten months past have been $317,683,213. The same rate of collection continued to the close of the year will give about $381,000,000, or $2,000,000 less than Mr. Fairchild's estimate. The expenditures for ten months have been $261,865,368. The same rate of expenditure continued to the end of the year will make a total of $314,000,000 exclusive of the sinking fund of about $47,000,000. Thus the surplus drops from an estimate of $56,000,000 to $20,000,000 or less. The urgency for tariff reduction disappears, and there will be hardly a sufficient margin for even a reduction of the internal revenue unless Gen. Harrison's administration succeeds in reducing expenditures greatly below the rate at which they were maintained by Mr. Cleveland during the first eight months of the fiscal year.

SOUTH AMERICAN IMMIGRATION.

The Argentine Republic was in such pressing need of a larger population that it offered extraordinary inducements to immigrants, paying their passage money, furnishing them board after landing for fifteen days, giving them land for the mere occupancy thereof, and assisting them in various ways to get a start in life. The effect was what might be expected. The immigrants are coming more rapidly than the country is able to provide for them. The plan brings the poorest and most worthless, while those who are sufficiently prosperous to provide for themselves still turn their steps towards the United States. The Argentine plan is operating upon our own immigration like a sieve; all the trash is sifted through, and the best is left for us. It is estimated that not fewer than 370,000 immigrants will land in the silver republic during 1889, in search of bread and employment or land. To add this to the 2,400,000 inhabitants already there would be like adding 10,000,000 foreigners to our population in a single year. What to do with such an accumulation, hungry, destitute, and in the main helpless and shiftless, is likely to prove a problem so serious as to cause the extraordinary inducements to be withdrawn. The Argentine country contains about 540,000,000 acres of land of all sorts, but it needs sturdier hands than those of Italians, Spaniards and Bohemians to coax a livelihood out of it.

HOW LONG THE PEACH TREES RESTED.

The fruit-raisers of the Hudson Valley are beginning the second century of the Republic well, for, instead of announcing in their gloomiest manner the complete failure of all sorts of fruit that are dear to the eye and the palate, it is given out that there is every reason to believe that the yield this year will be the most prolific on record. Some of the statements in connection with this are a little hard to understand, as, for instance, this: "The peach-growers say that the year and a half's rest the trees have had will cause this year's fruit to be more juicy and finer in fibre than since 1886." Of course we shall all rejoice in juicier and finer-fibred peaches, though we may not be able quite to comprehend how the trees have had a "year and a half's rest."—New York Tribune.

We beg the Tribune not to leave us under the apprehension that all of its brains sailed away when the great editor took his departure for Paris. Does it not know that the peach trees bore fruit in 1887, and that they were relieved of their load in October or November of that year? That was about a year and a half ago. They rested during the winter, and then entered upon a whole year's rest by declining to load up with fruit in the season of 1888. Now they are beginning to load again. The Tribune will be all right when the arithmetic editor comes back.

BERRIES AND SUGAR.

There is no kind of food more sought after, more palatable, or healthier when rightly used during the summer months, than fruit; and it is pleasant to learn that unusually large crops of grapes, peaches, apples and strawberries are expected to be gathered in the great fruit-growing sections of the country. A drawback to this good news, however, is the advance in the price of sugar. There is no rose without its thorn.—Philadelphia Record.

Well, the man who cannot eat strawberries without sugar would not be an object of pity if he were compelled to go without them. And in relation to peaches it is a still greater superfluity, while for grapes and apples it is simply ridiculous. Wait till the fruit is ripe, and then take it as it grows. It is food for kings and good health will follow. The sugar trust would go to the wall if the fools who spoil their summer fruit by sweetening it would learn to eat it as nature meant it to be eaten. Let sugar go out when the berries come in, and the sugar speculators will hear something drop.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Binghamton burned Gov. Hill in effigy Tuesday night, for vetoing the charter extension bill. The Governor will get even by spelling the name with a "p" hereafter.—Saratogian.

The information that a number of the saloon keepers of Massachusetts, who have been compelled to close their places by the high license restrictions, intend to come to Rhode Island, where they can enjoy the absolute freedom of the prohibitory law, is a very practical argument against an impossible law.—Providence Journal.

Neither David B. Hill, nor Grover Cleveland, nor William C. Whitney will lie awake nights because of the avowed candidacy for Democratic Presidential nomination of 1892 of General Palmer of Illinois. They are perfectly aware of the antagonism of their party to any old soldier, and therefore will not regard the Illinois man as even a possibility.—Graphic.

As the Commission is now constituted Civil Service Reform for the first time is committed to the hands of its friends. It is also an abler body than it heretofore has been. It gives the Record great pleasure to commend the action of President Harrison. He has done what the country expected of him, and what his pledges required. If he shall live up to the quality of his Commission he will do well enough.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

That protection (from the South, which we already enjoy) is the barrier of high industrial intelligence and skill. If we know how to make laces or watches or tools or telephones better than any body else in the country, we have a natural protection which no law can rob us of. That is the line in which we may still hold our prosperity after the heavy industries which require great expenditures of brute force have left us.—Springfield Union.

The Attorney General of Missouri has appointed his wife as his first Assistant, which leads the Washington Star to remark: "If this is not running an office on the family plan, what is it? But who ever heard of the offense taking such a form before?" Strictly speaking, the transaction was not an appointment, but rather a confirmation. If the lady has been a good wife, she has been her husband's first assistant since their marriage.—Utica Observer, Dem.

In an incident just made public, Corporal Tanner appears to fresh advantage. A Democratic special pension examiner out in Ohio, an old soldier, forwarded his resignation. The corporal looked up his record and then wrote him a letter in which he said he could not advise the Secretary of the Interior to accept the resignation, as it was not intended to dismiss any old soldiers efficiently discharging their duties from that department of the public service because of their political opinions.—Hartford Courant.

For unadulterated buncombe—buncombe of the most brazen variety, rampant buncombe, buncombe that nauseates—commend us to Governor Hill's assertion in his recent veto: "I am not the Governor of a class or a faction, or even a party. I am the Executive of the will of the people of this state." Think of a notorious peanut politician like Hill, who lives, moves and has his being in partisan politics, talking like that. "Not the Governor of a class," when his subserviency to the liquor dealers is known of all men; not the Governor of "a faction," when he sneezes whenever Tammany Hall takes snuff; not the Governor of "a party," when his avowed reason for vetoing the police bill was strictly a party reason. Humbug and Hill both begin with an H.—New York Tribune.

May you never suffer what I have, is the wish of your friend, B. H. Tayleur.

Rheumatism is caused by an acid in the blood; therefore, external treatment affords no permanent relief. To eliminate the poison and make a thorough cure of the disease, nothing else is so efficient as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Give it a trial. Price $1. Worth $5 a bottle.

One of my children, a girl about nine years old, had a very bad discharge from her head and nose of a thick, yellowish matter. We had two physicians for her, but without benefit. They are thoroughly responsible financially, as any one can learn by proper inquiry through druggists [who sell the medicine at only 50 cents], and they "mean business."

PEERLESS DYES Are the Best Sold by druggist

The Old Doctors

Drew blood, modern doctors cleanse it, hence the increased demand for Alteratives. It is now well known that most diseases are due not to over-abundance, but impurity of the blood, and it is equally well attested that no blood medicine is so efficacious as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"One of my children had a large sore break out on the leg. We applied simple remedies, for a while, thinking the sore would shortly heal. But it grew worse. We sought medical advice, and were told that an alterative medicine was necessary. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being above all others, we used it with marvelous results. The sore healed and health and strength rapidly returned."—J. J. Armstrong, Weimar, Texas.

"I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be an admirable remedy for the cure of blood diseases. I prescribe it, and it does the work every time."—E. L. Pater, M. D., Manhattan, Kansas.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommended it when asked to name the best blood-purifier."—W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio.

"Ayer's medicines continue to be the standard remedies in spite of all competition."—T. W Richmond, Bear Lake, Mich.

Sustained by the Treating Habit.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Rondout requests THE FREEMAN to print the following:

The New-York Times reports an interesting conversation between one of its staff and the owner of a corner liquor store. The latter had been having a dull day, and was lamenting the fact that there had been little or no treating going on. "People may talk all they like about the abolishing or curtailing the liquor traffic," he said, "but they can't do it as long as the treating habit is followed up as it is now. It is treating that gives most of us saloon-keepers the most of our income. If our customers come in one by one and get their drinks and go out, the receipts are very slow in footing up. But if they meet in front of the bar and get sociable, therein is our harvest. When they set to talking politics, then is the high noon of our prosperity." The saloon-keeper concludes by saying that if temperance people wish to repress the saloons they should do it by repressing the treating habit. Unfortunately for him the only practicable way of repressing the treating habit is by the suppression of the treating place.—Christian Union.

While the treating habit cannot be entirely suppressed, without "suppressing the treating place," each individual can suppress it, so far as he is concerned, by merely exercising his own will power.

Literary Notes.

An interesting description of the Lyman Place at Waltham, Mass., is given in Garden and Forest for May 8.

A recent dispatch announced the death of a photographer in North Africa at the hands of some of the Arabs, who consider the mysterious copier of nature a sacrilegious magician. The first impression was that it might be David Ker, newspaper correspondent, who was known to have taken a camera among those Mohammedans, risking the danger of their fanaticism purposely. But Mr. Ker has just turned up in New-York, and the result of his further travels, illustrated by his own photographs, will appear in the Cosmopolitan. In the May number he describes the present site of ancient Carthage. Mr. Ker is a prolific contributor to the columns of the New-York Times.

The second paper in "The Great Agitation" series, recording the history of the anti-slavery movement, in the Cosmopolitan magazine, presents in the May number the career of Benjamin Lundy, the earliest anti-slavery journalist. The writer was his comrade, Frank B. Sanborn. Among the contributors to follow are Oliver Johnson, the octogenarian, last survivor of the group who founded the first anti-slavery society with Garrison, Mrs. Abby M. Diaz, famed for her work in anti-slavery conventions, Julia Ward Howe, Thomas Wentworth Higginson, Parker Pillsbury, and many other celebrities in the cause of human freedom. The pro-slavery side of the contest will also be given from the pens of Southerners.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this County. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at Van Deusen Bros. and F. J. R. Clarke's drug stores.

HOME NEWS PARAGRAPHED

BITS OF CHAT AND GOSSIP OVERHEARD HERE TO-DAY.

From the Hill Top in the Seventh Ward—The Pernicious Effect of Using Tobacco—Red Men Entertained Here—That Suspicious Case on Hasbrouck-Avenue.

The number of small boys who smoke on the streets here is increasing. It is a pernicious habit. Dr. Lyman, an expert, reports in the New-York Medical Journal some accurate investigations concerning the use of tobacco. "In an observation of 38 boys of all classes of society and of average health, who had been using tobacco for from two months to two years, 27 showed serious injury to the constitution and checked physical development. Thirty-two showed damage done to the heart's action, disordered digestion and a craving for alcohol. Thirteen had intermittency of the pulse and one had consumption. After the abandonment of tobacco within six months one-half were free from all the above symptoms, and the remainder were cured by the end of the year." The Maoris are given as an instance of the evil resulting from tobacco. This race was, when first discovered, the finest developed of any tribe on the Pacific. It is now decimated in numbers and degenerate in type. This is said to be owing to their inordinate fondness for tobacco."

Complaint is made by certain people living on high elevations in Rondout that the blowing of whistles of brickyards at East-Kingston and other near by localities at about 3 o'clock mornings is a nuisance. A resident of Chester-street said this forenoon: "The blowing of whistles on brickyards at so early an hour mornings should be abated. It is annoying to people who are ill and to people who have sensitive nerves. I spoke to a manufacturer not long ago about the nuisance, and he made the excuse for blowing the whistle so early that many of his workmen lived two miles away, and that they had to be awakened in that manner. I suggested to him that all the people in this City did not work on brickyards, but he replied that made no difference—it was a custom that had long been in vogue by brick-makers, and must be kept up."

Many homes on the hills in the Seventh Ward are charmingly situated From them are obtainable panoramas of both shores of the Hudson as far down as Fishkill. Fine views can be had of the Catskills, and of the Shawangunks as far as Paltz Point. The most delightful view, however, is right in the foreground, being a portion of the town of Esopus, in which Hussey Hill is prominent. The view of the busy Rondout Creek, with its many steam and sailing vessels, including the West Shore bridge, is picturesque indeed. Ulster Academy is situated on this high and healthful location, and its situation is well adapted to cultivate in the minds of its pupils a love and taste for the sublime and beautiful in nature.

Minnewaskie Tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men, of this City, entertained members of the Minnewa Tribe, of Poughkeepsie, last evening. The Red Men from Poughkeepsie were met at the dock here by a delegation of Minnewaskie Tribe, accompanied by a drum corps. The visitors were escorted to the rooms of the order, on upper Union-avenue. District Deputy Merrion presented to Minnewaskie Lodge a chart, emblematic of the order. After pleasant exercises and greetings entertainers and guests partook of a banquet.

The recent finding of barrels containing kerosene, oiled rags, kindling wood, etc., in a house on Hasbrouck avenue, has caused much comment. An investigation into the matter may be made by insurance men. It is said the barrels stood in the middle of a room and that there were five gallons of oil in each can. The insurance agent who called at the house, and later on told what he had seen to other local agents who had issued policies on the building, was informed of the suspicious state of affairs by a man who lives near the house.

The funeral of Past Commander W. H. Mills, of Newburgh, will leave that City at 9:30 to-morrow morning, accompanied by delegations from the Grand Army and Fire Department. Arriving at West Shore Depot Kingston, details from the Grand Army of the Republic, of this City, and of his old regiment, the One Hundred and Fifty-Sixth, will meet the escort and march to Montrepose Cemetery where the remains will be interred.

It is again pointed out that there are too many shade trees on many streets in this City. The lower limbs should be cut off, and, in instances, it would be well to remove every other tree and thin the branches out of others. Too much shade is worse than not enough, and while the trees keep away sunshine they also keep away the air, as will be found by walking under them at night, after being where there are no trees.

The most handsome and pure-blooded skye terrier in this City is the property of a Delaware & Hudson Canal boatman. One of its progenitors took the first prize at the recent Albany bench show. The playful little canine has a tuft of hair on top of its head which rises and falls like the "scare wig" of a negro minstrel.

Hammocks can now be seen suspended on piazzas and elsewhere around houses and barns here. Few houses are sufficiently large to allow a hammock to be swung properly within them. Even in a good-sized barn a hammock will at times be in the way.

The special articles in the Saturday evening issue of this journal will include information for prospective anglers in streams in the Catskill Mountains; the story of two remarkable dogs at Highland; a Rondout man's version of a faith cure episode, etc.

The mud that is being taken from the Rondout Creek, near the Sleightburgh flats, to deepen the water for a dock there for the Delaware & Hudson Company, is being used to fill up one of the Company's slips at the "Island Dock."

John Dearman arrested on a complaint made by his wife that he threatened to kill her and burn her buildings, and is now in jail in this City, will be taken before 'Squire France for a hearing on Saturday.

The members of the Fourteenth Separate Company have been ordered to report at the Armory on Thursday night, for full-dress drill. The Company will be headed by the Pythian Brass Band.

The service for young men to be held in the rooms of the Kingston Young Men's Christian Association at 3:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon will be led by Ira Markle.

Boys in a nude state bathed in the Rondout Creek to-day. They know there is an ordinance prohibiting them from so doing, and they also know it is not enforced.

May this year is as "leafy" a month as June. Trees and shrubbery never looked finer than they do to-day. Gardens present a pleasing picture to the eye.

The handsome flower garden in front of the Franciscan Brothers' residence, next to St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rondout, is admired by passers-by.

The members of the Mission Band of the Wurts-Street M. E. Church, will give a literary and musical entertainment in the lecture-room, this evening.

The remains of John F. Hickey, who died in Binghamton Insane Asylum, were brought to this City to-day and interred in St. Mary's Cemetery.

When the fire bells were rung, very early this morning, birds that frequent the Clinton-Avenue Ridge broke out into song.

There will be special term of the Supreme Court held at the Court House to-morrow.

Barnum's circus and menagerie will be exhibited in this City on May 24.

There will be a meeting of insurance men to-night at the Eagle Hotel.

Fair, warm weather promised for this vicinity on Saturday.

The Common Council will meet to-night.

Other vicinity news on page 3.

NO TEST OF STEAM ROLLERS TO-DAY.

Only One Machine on the Ground—A Test, Not an Exhibition, Desired.

The Committee appointed by the Common Council to witness a test of steam rollers, with a view of the City purchasing a machine if it gave satisfaction, did not have the opportunity to-day of witnessing a trial, as was expected. The agent of Averling & Company, whose roller has been here for three days, refused to place his machine on the road. He said that he was here to compete, not to exhibit, and there was no machine to compete with. He further said the machine was sold, and must be delivered to the purchaser. For that reason he could not keep it in this City and await the coming of the other roller.

PHASES OF THE LICENSE QUESTION

In this City and at Points Along the Hudson River.

The "talk" of restricting license in this City to comply with the law upon the subject is favorably commented upon by the press along the Hudson River.

An attempt was made to convict a Poughkeepsie man of selling liquor on Sunday, recently. "The evidence was insufficient."

There are 77 persons in the town of Fishkill who desire to continue selling rum and beer during the ensuing year.

The treasury of Pittsfield, Mass., a smaller place than this City, receives this year $22,300 from high license.

The Democratic Board of Excise at Coxsackie has reduced the price of licenses from $50 to $30.

FLAMES IN KINGSTON THIS MORNING.

Part of the Andrew Sutton House Burned—The Property Was Insured.

At about 3 o'clock this morning a fire occurred in a frame building, situated on the corner of Greenkill and Wilbur-avenues, Kingston, owned by Andrew Sutton. An alarm was given, the fire-bells were rung, the Western Fire Department turned out, and the flames were quickly extinguished. The building was a double house. The only occupant was Mrs. Sutton, wife of the owner. Yesterday she was moving from one house to the other. She had a portion of her furniture in each side of the building and was sleeping with her four children in what is known as the "big house." The fire broke out in the "little house," which was destroyed with its contents. The property was insured.

A SKELETON FOUND AT PORT-EWEN.

In the Skull is a Small Hole as Though Made by a Pistol Ball.

The people of Port-Ewen are talking about a skeleton that was unearthed there to-day. J. T. VanVliet, a workman on Kline's brickyard, while digging at the foot of a sand hill, was startled on seeing the skull of a human being roll down the embankment to his feet.

Search revealed the skeleton of a man buried about a foot beneath the surface. In the skull is a small hole, as if made by a pistol ball or dirk.

Many of the villagers believe that the man was murdered and buried in the sand bank.

THE PRESENT HIGH TEMPERATURE.

Ninety-Five in the Shade Here this Afternoon—One Case of Prostration.

At 9 o'clock this morning thermometers in Rondout recorded 91 in the shade. This afternoon it was 4 degrees warmer.

At about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, William B. Scott, Superintendent of the City Alms House, took to the Poor House a boatman named George Repsten, who was found on The Strand overcome by the heat. Repsten had so far recovered to-day that he returned to his boat.

At about 3:30 o'clock this afternoon rain began falling, which perceptibly cooled the atmosphere.

WHAT A BOATMAN SAID HERE TO-DAY.

Asserting that a Woman and Four Children Were Drowned Near Peekskill.

A boatman reported here to-day that on Wednesday night, in a fog, a propeller ran into a Northern Canal boat, which was in a Ronan or Schuyler's line tow, and that a woman and four children were drowned.

He said that the accident occurred in the Hudson River near Peekskill, and that the Northern boat was cut nearly in two and immediately sunk.

A RONDOUTER ROBBED UP NORTH.

Young Man Named Scott and the Statement He Made to Police at West-Troy.

This morning the police of West-Troy recovered a mule, a wagon, blankets and harness from a man named Scott, at Greenbush. Scott resides at Rondout, and it is alleged the property, with $100 in money, was stolen by two companions. A horse stolen from Scott has been located in Albany.

MORE NEW POSTMASTERS NAMED.

The New Appointees at Gardiner, Highland, Kerhonkson, Woodstock, Etc.

The following were, to-day, appointed fourth-class Postmasters: T. E. Barton, Gardiner; Edgar Elmendorf, Highland; Louis Flukiger, Kerhonkson; Alexander Longyear, Woodstock; William T. Elliott, Centreville; William D. Wanzer, Clintondale.

The Local Shipping News.

The whistle of the steamer "City of Kingston" was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek last night at 10 o'clock. The "Kingston" left New-York 25 minutes late. It had on board a heavy freight.

The owners of the W. W. Colt, which vessel is hard aground on the flats in front of Hudson, are waiting for a strong south wind and high tide to float it.

There arrived at tide-water, at Eddyville, yesterday, 38 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, laden with 4,940 tons of coal.

Runaway in Kingston.

This morning while William Martin was driving an express wagon, the horse ran away, and near Kingston Academy stumbled and fell. The wagon turned a summersault, if that term can be used, fell on the horse so the head of the animal was under the hind axle of the wagon. The shafts bent like whips, but were not broken. Little damage was done.

The Evangelical Alliance.

The annual meeting of the Evangelical Alliance will be held on Monday evening, May 13, in the Chapel of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church. Officers will be elected and other important business transacted. The Executive Committee will meet at 7 o'clock and the Alliance at 8.

What Soda Water Manufacturers May Do.

A meeting of soda water manufacturers of this City will be held to-night for the purpose of raising the price of "soft drinks." This movement, a manufacturer stated, this forenoon, is brought about by the advance in the price of sugar.

Entertainments in Rondout.

An entertainment for the benefit of Miss Lucie Pattison will be given in Washington Hall, May 22.

A comedy entitled a "Plug Hat" will be on the boards at Liscomb's Opera House on Tuesday evening.

Building a New Dock.

The dock that is being built for the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company along the edge of the Sleightburgh flats, will be 500 feet in length.

Personal.

Hon. Charles A. Fowler, of Kingston, is slowly improving.

RAILROADS IN 3 COUNTIES.

WORK BEING VIGOROUSLY PROSECUTED ON TWO NEW ROADS.

Bridge Being Built at Cooperstown Junction—The Extension Up Charlotte Valley—A Wreck on the Erie Early This Morning—New Time Tables.

New time tables will go into effect on the West Shore and Hudson River Railroads on Sunday.

A freight train, west-bound, on the Erie Railroad broke a coupling-pin four miles east of Port-Jervis at 4 o'clock this morning. It stopped to couple and was just about to start when another freight train dashed into it demolishing the caboose and several cars. The engine of the rear train was wrecked, and 13 cars, mostly empty, were piled on the tracks, obstructing travel for 4 hours. Engineer George Cowan and Conductor Levithorne were seriously hurt.

The correspondent of THE FREEMAN at Oneonta writes: "Work has been commenced on the bridge over the Albany & Susquehanna Road, at Cooperstown Junction. It is to be 110 feet span, the same style used by the Central Railroad. The price completed, ready for the ties, is $4,350. The work on the C. C. & V. Road extension is being pushed with vigor up the Charlotte Valley. The Company is making an effort to complete the road to Davenport Centre by July 1, and on July 4 to run an excursion from Cooperstown to that place. Surveyors are also at work between Oneonta and West Oneonta on the Oneida & Oneonta Road, to locate the junction of the road with the Delaware & Hudson.

A SCHOOL COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The Trouble in District No. 3 Apparently Ended—New School House Project.

A meeting of Trustees and tax-payers of School District No. 3, Rondout, was held last night in the school building for the purpose of hearing a report of a committee, consisting of Henry Kukoo, Christian Larsen, James Dalton, James Tongue, Sr., and Michael Larkin, appointed on August 18, 1888, to investigate the affairs of the District for the past 10 years.

Patrick Keane was Chairman of the meeting. The report of the Committe was read by Clerk Henry Powers. The report stated that the accounts of the school and all matters relating thereto had been found to be correct for the years of 1887 and 1888, but that the accounts for the years 1886, '85, '84, '83, '82, '81, '80, '79 and '78 were "considerably mixed," although the Committee did not charge that there had been any gross mismanagement on the part of the officials of the District prior to 1887. The Committee made the following suggestions, which were discussed later on:

First—That the Trustees of the District keep better records.

Second—That the Trustees be authorized to furnish books, which books are to be properly kept.

Third—That the Clerk and Treasurer be required to keep their books and papers in such condition that the same can at any time be examined by any tax-payer of the District.

Fourth—That the tax-payers of the District be requested to look into the expenses of the present school system.

Fifth—Furthermore the Committee suggest that a site be purchased on which a new school house, which will compare favorably with any in the City, be built.

Trustee Flynn, after giving a brief history of the District, explained how Collectors used to perform their duties, and related that he had been a Trustee for about 35 years, during which time he had never discovered any wrong-doing. Sometimes the tax list would not be returned, the Collector erroneously presuming that the roll was his property. Mr. Flynn further said that he had received school moneys and had given the Collectors receipts therefor and had recorded the same in their pass books.

John Muldoon said that he did not believe the Investigating Committee had found anything irregular, and moved that the Committee be discharged and the matters of the District be begun anew under the head of "new business."

A motion was made and carried that the report of the Committee be received and adopted. A vote of thanks was also extended to the Committee.

In relation to the suggestion "that the Trustees keep better records," Christian Larsen said: "The money accounts of the District have not been kept in a proper manner. Hereafter I would like to see the accounts kept in such a shape that any person will be able to look over them at any time and understand them."

Trustee Flynn said that Mr. Larsen was laboring under a mistake as to how accounts were kept.

Henry Kukoo stated that the reason why Mr. Larsen had asserted that there was no head nor tail to the whole thing was because the records of the District for certain years had not been kept in a book of the District.

Trustee Ryan said that he did not see how the fourth suggestion of the Committee could be carried out unless a committee was appointed for that special purpose.

The matter of purchasing a site on which to build a new school house followed.

The Chairman stated that it was unnecessary to talk about such a project at this time, as it could not be acted upon until the next annual meeting. The Chairman's remarks did not end the discussion, however.

Mr. Larsen stated that he broached the subject so that it could be talked up by the tax-payers of the District. "We need a larger school. The present location is a miserable, unhealthy place. Let the present school be sold and a new and more commodious one be erected. This is the richest district in the City. We have banks and large corporations within its limits paying taxes, and we ought to have as good a school as any in the City."

Henry Kukoo said: "The present school building is not large enough. If the tax-payers consent to purchase a site in another locality and erect a building that will compare favorably with other schools in the City, it will benefit every person in the District."

Trustee Flynn said that it was only a waste of time to talk over the matter now.

The Clerk stated that the school was crowded last winter, it being necessary sometimes to place two scholars in one seat.

STORIES TOLD BY ANGLERS IN MAY.

A Cool Delhi Fisherman—Where Large Trout Have Been Hooked.

A Delhi lawyer, according to his usual custom at the opening of the trout season, wended his way to the region of the speckled beauties, near Andes. Proceeding along a stream, he found himself, without any injury to his hardened conscience, however, upon private grounds, and saw sign-boards reading: "No Fishing Allowed." While fishing he was approached by a sturdy farmer, who inquired if he was not acquainted with the law in regard to private parks. "I ought to know," replied the lawyer. "Well, what is it?" inquired the maddened farmer. The Delhi man proceeded to inform the old man, and also, without regard to the farmer's threats of arrest, etc., proceeded to fill his spacious basket. On his return to Delhi he sent a bill for a $10 counsel fee to the astonished tiller of the soil, who now says "lawyers can fish and be ——."

A party of six expert fishermen went to a Catskill Mountain stream yesterday. They carried with them the most approved and expensive paraphernalia for catching trout, and their friends expected that at least six basketful of fish would be caught. The experts fished all day faithfully. They tried bait and tempted the fish with flies and caught just one little trout. Two ragged urchins came on the stream as the Kingston men were leaving. The boys had poles made from saplings, hooks and lines that were of a primitive pattern. The youngsters caught a fine mess of trout.

Gilboa is ahead on trout stories. A fisherman there claims to have caught three that averaged three pounds each.

F. B. Mayham and J. H. Barlow caught 30 large pickerel in the Mayham Pond, near Hobart, the other day.

A trout weighing one and one-half pounds was caught on Tuesday by Alexander Golden, of Roxbury.

A trout 18 inches in length was caught in the Big Indian stream, one day recently.

IMPORTANT TO RAILROAD MEN.

A. E. Smith has been for forty-nine years road master on the Boston & Maine system and is now residing at Great Falls, N. H. He says trackmen, brakemen, firemen, engineers and conductors, as well as baggage masters and expressmen, are subject to kidney disease above all others. All, therefore, will be interested in the statement of his experience. "I have used Brown's Sarsaparilla for kidney and liver troubles, and can truly say it has done more for me than all the doctors I ever employed, and I have had occasion to require the services of the best physicians in the State. My wife also has been greatly benefited by its use.

A. E. SMITH,
Road Master B. & M. R. R."

The kidneys have been labored hard all winter, as the pores of the skin have been closed, but now the springtime has come, and they need some aid. May be you have that pain across the back; that tired feeling; those drawing down pains. If so, you can get immediate relief by following the example of Mr. Smith and his wife, and use that never-failing and grand corrector for the kidneys, liver and blood.
